BILL VETOED.

The bill incorporating the Westmoreland County Agricultural Society has been vetoed, on the ground that the Courts have jurisdiction.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

BILLS PASSED.

Mr. WILSON called up the bill legalizing the ordinances of Pittsburgh Councils. Passed.

The General Insane bill from the Senate was passed.

COMMUTING DEATH PENALTY.

The Senate amendment to bill authorizing the Governor to commute the death penalty was adopted by the House. The bill is as follows:

Be it enacted, &c., That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor of this Commonwealth, in any case where a sentence of death has been or shall be pronounced against any person by any Court of Oyer and Terminer of this Commonwealth, to reduce such sentence to imprisonment for life, or for any term of years in the penitentiary in the proper district.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION.

Mr. STRANG referred to the article in Monday's Philadelphia Evening Telegraph, criticising his objection to the consideration of the Rogers bill the other day, allowing the Philadelphia Society for the prevention of cruelty to animals to erect public fountains. He pronounced the article contemptible. His object in objecting was to reach the Registry bill, not to defeat the Society's bill.

NEW TAX BILL.

The bill from the Senate for the better assessment of taxes in Allegheny will never be reported from the Committee, and cannot pass, the general feeling of the Allegheny delegation going against it.

THE PHILADELPHIA CATTLE BILL.

The Corporation Committee this afternoon negatived the Philadelphia Cattle bill.

THE PHILADELPHIA MURDERERS.

At eight o'clock this evening it is certain that the Governor will not commute the sentences of Gerald Eaton and George Twitchell, under the act passed to-day, as was hoped by parties putting the bill through. He may sign the bill, but not embrace the opportunity to relieve Eaton or Twitchell.

CUBA.

Expeditions from the Mississippi—Political Prisoners.

HAVANA, April 6.—It is known here that the authorities at Washington are aware that two expeditions are preparing to leave the Mississippi. Admiral Hoff has been ordered to prevent them from effecting a landing, and also to watch the movements of the Peruvian monitors.

The Spanish war steamer, which brought in the steamer Comanditario, also brought as prisoners five persons found on board. They are now being tried by a Naval Court Martial, and if convicted, will be hanged or shot immediately.

Six hundred artillery men arrived from Cienfuegos, the volunteers welcoming them in procession on their arrival, during which the flag of free Cuba was dragged and trampled on amid much enthusiasm.

HAVANA, April 7.—The Diario says the rebels are leaving, and the jurisdiction of Sagua La Grande is becoming quiet. Several men from Sagua, lately in the rebel ranks, have returned to the city and joined the volunteers.

HAVANA, April 7.—It is reported to-day that the burning of settlements and farms in the interior is still being carried on by the insurrectionists. The Vose de Cuba newspaper to-day comments bitterly on sales of property belonging to emigrant Cubans.

A fleet of ten gunboats is expected from Spain, and orders have been sent to builders in the United States for the construction of thirty more. A battallion of artillerymen, which lately arrived here from Cienfuegos, will probably be sent to the Viella Alijo region.

Theodoro Munez and Francisco Gonzales, two of the captors of the steamer Comanditerio, who were made prisoners when she was recaptured, are in irons on board a Spanish man-of-war at Nassau, where they are kept for the purpose of identifying their companions, who escaped to that island. A batch of twenty rebel prisoners have just arrived from Santo Espiritu. The Governor of the town of Guanbaca is banishing young men suspected of rebel tendencies.

A revival of the late volunteer demonstration is anticipated on the arrival of volunteers from Catalonia.

PHILADELPHIA.

Preparations for the Execution of Eaton and Twitchell To-day.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, April 7.—Preparations for the execution of Gerald Eaton, convicted of the murder of Timothy Murphy, and of Geo. S. Twitchell, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Mary E. Hill, have commenced. The same scaffold will be used upon which Probst and others have suffered the death penalty. The executions will be private. Only the officials and six reporters are to be present.

Eaton, in conversation to-day, expressed himself ready to meet his fate. He declared decidedly that he did not fire the fatal shot, and should not have been convicted of murder. He says he is ready to go out and die like a man. He was thirty-three years of age on the 10th of March, the day on which the death warrant was read to him.

Twitchell has just taken farewell leave of his brothers and young McCully, who was his steadfast friend during the trial. The parting was very affecting and all wept bitterly. Twitchell became somewhat more composed after the departure of his friends. He appears to have lost much of that firmness which characterized him during his trial and since his conviction. Twitchell said he was as well as any man could be under the circumstances, and he had suffered all any person could in his position. Nothing was said about the murder.

The Philadelphia Murderers.

HARRISBURG, April 7.—Tremendous exertions are being made for the pardon of Eaton and Twitchell, but the Governor has fully decided to let the law take its course with Twitchell, and more than probably in Eaton's case also.

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, April 7, 1869.

The grand jury have indicted Deputy Sheriff John Moran for aiding the escape of George King, the bond robber.

The contractor who had charge of the nitro-glycerine which caused the terrible explosion to-dav in Jersey City, has been arrested.

Losses by a fire which occurred in West Washington market to-day amount to $12,000, distributed among several firms, mostly insured.

A heavy thunder storm, accompanied by hail, passed over the city at noon.

George F. Nesbitt, a well known printer, died to-day, aged sixty-one.

Applications at the Custom House for office are estimated at four thousand.

It is reported Judge Barnard will to-morrow order the commitment of Durant, Cisco and Tuttle to Ludlow street jail, if they persist in their refusal to testify in his Court under Judge Blatchford's decision. This will necessarily provoke a conflict between the Federal and State Courts. Another rumor is that the persons concerned in breaking open the Union Pacific Company's safe will be prosecuted for trespass.

Antonio Manere was arrested to-day on suspicion of being the murderer of a German Jew, who was found murdered on March 14th in Spring Valley, Rockland county.

Disappearance of a Banker.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 7.—F. G. Jewell, private banker of Skaneatlas, N. Y., and formerly of this city, has mysteriously disappeared. He left New York one day last week, having on his person $20,000. He proceeded as far as Hudson, where the train on which he was a passenger was stopped by a freshet in the river. No intelligence has been received of him since that time.

FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

[FIRST SESSION.]

SENATE: Re-organization of Judiciary System—Deficiency Bill Taken Up—Sprague Belligerent—Message from the President. HOUSE: Indian Appropriation Bill Passed—Ohio River Bridges—Bill to Reconstruct Georgia — Animated Debate.

WASHINGTON, April 7, 1869.

SENATE.

The Chaplain prayed that the patriot arms of Cuba might be strengthened and the Isles of the Sea be severed from their oppressors.

Mr. TRUMBULL, from the Judiciary Committee, reported the bill to carry into effect the treaty between the United States and the Emperor of Russia.

Mr. MORRILL, from the Committee on Public Buildings, reported a joint resolution providing for a Commission to select a site for a new building for the Department of State and new accommodations for the War Department.

Mr. SUMNER, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported a bill to prevent counterfeiting foreign trade marks protected by treaty stipulations.

Mr. WILSON, from Committee on Military Affairs, reported, without amendment, the joint resolution for the protection of soldiers and their heirs in regard to the payment of bounties.

Mr. EDMUNDS, from Committee on Pensions, reported a bill to authorize the officers of executive departments to administer oaths in certain cases. It authorizes their administration by any officer or clerk detailed to investigate frauds on the part of any officer or agent of the Government.

Mr. DAVIS, from the Committee on Contingent Expenses, reported a resolution providing for the investigation to a certainty what Committees have clerks whose services can be dispensed with.

Mr. WILSON gave notice he would offer a joint resolution authorizing the President to appoint a Committee to examine into the best means of establishing a ship canal across the Isthmus of Darien.

Mr. TRUMBULL called up the bill to amend the Judiciary system of the United States, as returned amended by the House. From the Committee on Judiciary he reported an amendment allowing the phraseology of House amendment, providing any Justice of the Supreme Court who, on attaining the age of seventy years, shall retire, shall hereafter receive his salary during the remainder of his natural life. It and other amendments of detail reported by the Judiciary Committee were made to bill, which now goes back to the House for concurrence.

Mr. WILLIAMS called up the bill to aid in the construction of a branch of the Pacific Railroad to Portland, Oregon, which was amended and passed.

The expiration of the morning hour brought up the joint resolution to protect the interests of the United States in the Pacific Railroad.

Mr. FESSENDEN moved to postpone all prior orders to take up the Deficiency bill.

Mr. HOWARD opposed the motion and urged the Senate to dispose first of unfinished business.

Mr. FESSENDEN feared that unless the deficiency appropriation was passed to-day, it could not pass this session. His motion was carried—yeas 35, nays 14.

Mr. SPRAGUE said: "I promised myself to-morrow, Mr. President, that I should beg the indulgence of the Senate for the consideration of an important subject. My position has been selected, my wings are well covered, my infantry is in line of battle, my artillery has been assigned to position, but my shells, canister and grape, are behind in consequence of the unfavorable state of the roads. I shall be ready to-morrow to go to battle." Mr. Sprague then took his coat and hat and left the chambor, amid general laughter, in which he indulged.

The Senate proceeded to the Deficiency Appropriation bill, and certain amendments reported by the Committee on Appropriations were agreed to.

Mr. FESSENDEN, from the Committee, reported an amendment creating the office of Superintendent of the Department of the Interior. Agreed to.

Mr. DRAKE offered an amendment making an appropriation for the salary of the Solicitor and Naval Judge Advocate General. Agreed to.

Mr. WILSON, from the Military Committee, offered an amendment, authorizing the Secretary of War to make a transfer of appropriations from military districts having them in excess to carry into effect reconstruction laws in districts where money may be needed for that purpose.

An amendment appropriating $150,000 for the improvement of St. Clair Flats and river, and $50,000 for the improvement of the mouth of the Mississippi river, were voted down.

Mr. WILLEY, by unanimous consent, offered an amendment to pay salaries of fourteen first-class clerks in the Patent Office at $1,400 each, and twenty-one second-class clerks at $1,200 each. Agreed to.

Mr. MORTON offered an amendment directing the Secretary of War, with the approval of the President, to appoint a Board of Scientific Engineers to examine and report on the proper width of spans for railroad bridges across the Ohio river, and providing that, until Congress shall act on said report, no bridges shall be erected over it with a span less than four hundred feet in width across the main channel.

The amendment was ruled out of order and the bill then passed.

Messrs. Fessenden, Harlan and Cole were appointed a Committee of Conference on the Indian Appropriation bill.

The Vice President submitted a message from the President recommending that before adjourning Congress shall provide for the submission of the Virginia Constitution to the people sometime during May or June next, at an election to be held under the direction of the Commander of the District, with a view to the submission of the Constitution as adopted by the people to Congress at the commencement of the next session, and the early admission of the State to representation. The message makes a similar recommendation as to Mississippi.

At four o'clock P. M. the Senate went into Executive Session.

The Senate, after Executive Session, adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. PAINE, from Committee on Elections, reported resolutions authoring a sub-committee to take testimony in Louisiana during the recess, in reference to the elections in that State.

Mr. HEATON, from same Committee, made a report that John B. Rogers be entitled to a seat as Representative from Tennessee, as soon as Congress should enact a law for that purpose, and he also reported such bill, which was ordered to be printed.

Mr. DIXON, from Commiitee on Commerce, reported back the Senate bill to prevent the extermination of fur-bearing animals in Alaska. Ordered to be printed and recommitted.

Mr. WHEELER, from the Pacific Railroad Committee, reported back the Senate bill in relation to the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad. Passed with amendments.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the Indian Appropriation bill.

Mr. DAWES, Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, moved as an amendment an additional section, providing that nothing contained in the act shall be construed as ratifying or approving any Indian treaty made since July 20, 1867. Agreed to.

The vote was then taken on the amendment placing two millions at the disposal of the President to preserve peace with Indians, and agreed to—yeas, 98; nays, 33. The Democrats voted in the negative.

The action of Committee of the Whole on all the other amendments was concurred in.

Mr. INGERSOLL moved to suspend the rules, that he might report from the Committee on Roads and Canals a bill for the creation of a Commission of Engineers on the erection of railroad bridges across the Ohio river, and prohibiting, until further action by Congress, the erection of bridges across the river of span less than four hundred feet over the main channel.

The rules were not suspended—yeas 71, nays 53—not two-thirds.

Mr. BUTLER, Massachusetts, from the Reconstruction Committee, reported a bill to enforce the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution and laws of the United States, and restore the State of Georgia to the Republican Government elected under the new Constitution.

There was some discussion by Messrs. Butler, Beck, Bingham, Eldrige and Woodward, all except Mr. Butler claiming time for debate and not strenuously opposing it.

The previous question was moved by Mr. BUTLER, but was refused—61 to 67.

Mr. BUTLER then made an argument.

Mr. BECK opposed the bill, arguing that Georgia was already completely in the Union as a State. He asserted that the real foundation for the movement was in the personal motives of Governer Bullock, who had aspirations for the United States Senate, and whose qualifications for the Governorship were as slim as the chance of making "a silk purse out of a sow's ear." The bill was the most unjust and iniquitous ever hatched in Congress.

The Georgia bill was temporarily laid aside, and Mr. LYNCH, Chairman of the Select Committee on American Navigation Interests, reported a resolution authorizing the Committee to sit during vacation at such places as available, for the purpose of examining witnesses and taking testimony, to be reported on the 2d Monday in July. Adopted.

Mr. WASHBURNE, Wis., from the Committee on Appropriations, reported a bill appropriating $2,000,000 for repair, extension, reservation and completion of works for the improvement of rivers and harbors, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War.

Mr. BROOKS protested against abandoning the whole subject of internal improvement to the Secretary of War. That was not the proper way to do it.

Mr. WASHBURNE agreed with Mr. Brooks in that idea, but suggested this was the only feasible mode of providing at this session for works of internal improvement.

Mr. HOLMAN offered an amendment, providing the sum which may be alloted to the improvement of the Ohio river shall be applied to completing the Canal at the Falls of the Ohio, in accordance with plans and estimates of General Weitzel. Rejected—60 to 90.

The bill passed.

Mr. BURR offered a resolution authorizing the Speaker to designate a member to represent the minority of the Committee on Elections in the Louisiana investigation. Adopted.

Mr. BANKS, Chairman of Committee on Foreign Affairs, offered a resolution authorizing that Committee to sit during the session of the House and during vacation in the investigation of the Paraguayan matter. Adopted.

On motion of Mr. JULIAN, a Conference Committee was ordered on the bill in reference to the Osage Indian lands.

Mr. DAVIS, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill to establish a uniform system of naturalization. Ordered to be printed and recommitted.

The House then, at four o'clock, resumed the consideration of the Georgia bill, and was addressed by Mr. VOORHEES, in opposition to it. He regarded the bill as belonging to a revolutionary class of legislation, which was utterly unknown to the Constitution. Such a proposition would have once alarmed and convulsed the country. It would have been once regarded as more menacing to American liberties and the existence of the Republic than an invading army as large as the Persian host. This bill proposed to invade the State of Georgia and to strike down and destroy its civil power; to pull down the building that had been framed and erected under the dictation of Congress. He proclaimed the fourth section of the bill to be without parallel in the annals of the civilized world, for it visited with disfranchisement all persons who held office and had taken the oath to support the Confederacy, or had rendered support to the rebellion. Such an enactment was a crime against nature, and a revolt against the eternal principles of truth.

Mr. BINGHAM opposed the bill and expressed his regret that it had been reported by the Reconstruction Committee. The fourth section applied to every State in the Union. It was too late in the day for any man to deny the States of the Union had sacred rights which could not be invaded. The man who laid violent hands by legislation on the Constitution of his country ought to be held a public enemy. Such legislation as that embraced in the fourth section would receive the universal condemnation, not only of the southern people, but of the world. It ought to find no place on the statute book. Congress had no more right to legislate on the qualifications for state officers in the several states, than on the qualifications for office in England. He believed Indiana was just as much in revolt against the requirements of the Constitution, by the action of her legislature, as Georgia was.

Mr. BUTLER remarked that he agreed with Mr. Bingham on that point.

Mr. SCHENCK stated that the reason why he would vote to postpone this bill was, Congress had recognized the existence of Georgia under the reconstruction acts, and was therefore estopped from denying the exclusion of colored members by the Georgia legislature. He regarded it as a revolutionary act, an outrage, for which there was no excuse and no reasonable pretext. But suppose Ohio, Massachusetts or Pennsylvania had done something equivalent, how was Congress to remedy it? Was Congress to fall back on the doctrine that Georgia had never been reconstructed? It was estopped from that by the fact that it had acquiesced in the reconstruction. Was the doctrine to be assumed that Georgia had not a republican form of government? If so, then all that Georgia had done was to be disregarded and wiped out, and the State remitted to military authority. If that was proposed, he would feel free to support the measure before the House. He saw no solution for the difficulty except to leave the matter for the present, and let Georgia, herself, see whether she could furnish the solution. He was assured, if the Supreme Court of Georgia was permitted to go on and decide under the Constitution and laws of Georgia, and of the United States, the question of right of colored men to hold office, that decision would be acquiesced in and acted on by both branches of the Georgia legislature. Therefore he favored postponment.

Mr. BINGHAM moved a postponement of the bill till the first Monday of December next and demanded the previous question.

The previous question was not seconded.

The bill was laid aside temporarily and a Conference Committee on the Indian Appropriation bill ordered, and Messrs. Dawes, Bingham and Beck appointed on the part of the House.

Mr. CAKE, Chairman of the Committee on Accounts, reported a resolution authorizing the employment of clerks during the present session at four dollars and eighty cents per day for the following Committees: Banking and Currency, Pacific Railroad, Commerce, Naval Affairs, Postoffices, Roads and Canals, Indian Affairs, Foreign Affairs, Ninth Census, Printing, Territories, District of Columbia, Invalid Pensions and Revision of the Laws; authorizing the Reconstruction Committee to employ a clerk at the same compensation from March 4th till December 5th, 1869; continuing the messenger of the Committee on Appropriations for the present Congress, or till otherwise ordered; and continuing the clerk to the Committee on Accounts at the same compensation as during the Fortieth Congress.

Mr. RANDALL moved so lay the resolution on the table. Negatived—nays 30, yeas 39.

The resolution was adopted.

The message of the President, urging action in reference to Virginia and Mississippi before the adjournment of Congress was read to the House.

Mr. BUTLER, Mass., moved to refer the message to the Reconstruction Committee.

Mr. BROOKS moved to refer it to the Judiciary Committee, arguing the Reconstruction Committee had already expressed its views at variance with those expressed by the President in his message.

Mr. BUTLER said the members of the Judiciary Committee had also expressed their views on the Mississippi question, and that the Reconstruction Committee had power to report at any time, which power the Judiciary Committee had not.

Mr. BROOKS said the Judiciary Committee should have, on this question, leave to report at any time.

Mr. DICKEY objected?

Without disposing of it, the House, at 5.40, adjourned.

RHODE ISLAND ELECTION.

Majority for Republican State Ticket Three Thousand.

Message from President Grant to Congress Concerning Unreconstructed States — Army Matters—Territorial Officers Appointed—Pacific Railroad Investigation.

WASHINGTON, April 7, 1869.

MESSAGE TO CONGRESS FROM THE PRESIDENT—VIRGINIA AND MISSISSIPPI.

The following message from the President to Congress was presented at four o'clock this afternoon:

To the Senate and House of Representatives: While I am aware that the time in which Congress proposes now to remain in session is very brief, and that its desire is, as far as consistent with the public interest, to avoid entering upon the general business of legislation, there is one subject which concerns so deeply the welfare of the country that I deem it my duty to bring it before you. I have no doubt you will concur with me in the opinion that it is desirable to restore the States which were engaged in the rebellion to their relations to the government and the country at as early a period as the people of those States shall be found willing to become peaceful and orderly communities, and to adopt and maintain such constitutions and laws as will effectually secure the civil and political rights of all persons within their borders. The authority of the United States, which has been vindicated and established by its military power, must undoubtedly be asserted for the absolute protection of all citizens in the full enjoyment of freedom and security, which is the object of a republican government; but whenever the people of a rebellious State are ready to enter in good faith upon the accomplishment of this object, in entire conformity with the constitutional authority of Congress, it is certainly desirable that all causes of disturbance should be removed as promptly as possible, that a more perfect Union may be established, and the country be restored to peace and prosperity. The Convention of the people of Virginia, which met in Richmond Tuesday, December 3, 1867, framed a Constitution for that State, which was adopted by the Convention on the 17th of April, 1868, and I desire respectfully to call the attention of Congress to the propriety of providing by law for the polling of an election in that State at some time during the month of May or June next, under the direction of the military commander of the district, at which the question of the adoption of that Constitution shall be submitted to the citizens of the State. And if this should seem desirable, I would recommend that a separate vote be taken upon such parts as may be thought expedient, and that at the same time and under the same authority there shall be an election for the officers provided under such Constitution, and that the Constitution, or such parts thereof as shall have been adopted by the people, be submitted to Congress on the first Monday of December next for its consideration, so that if the same is then approved the necessary steps will have been taken for the restoration of Virginia to its proper relations to the Union.

I am led to make this recommendation from the confident belief that the people of that State are now ready to co-operate with the National Government in bringing it into such relations to the Union as it ought as soon as possible to establish and maintain, to give to all its people those equal rights under the law which are asserted in the Declaration of Independence, in the words of one of the most illustrious of its sons.

I desire also to ask the attention of Congress to the question whether there is not just grounds for believing the Constitution framed by the Convention of the people of Mississippi for that State, and once rejected, might not be again submitted to the people of that State in like manner, and with the probability of the same result.

(Signed) U. S. GRANT.

—The Pope is going to give another golden rose to somebody. After the effect the last one had upon Isabella of Spain, bidders will be scarce.

—The Band of Faith in Shurtleff College, Ill., proposes to "become as little children," and therefore expects other people to wait upon them.

—It is fashionable to present baskets of fruit instead of flowers, in Philadelphia. A laudable effort at self-definition according to the Biblical injunction.

—A menagerie broke loose in Mississippi the other day, and the rural inhabitants of the neighboring section of country are having the excitement of a lion at large.

—In arguing the healthfulness of Florida, a letter writer propounds the astounding statement that "no country is entirely exempt from disease and death."

—There are 1,805 actors, actresses and other employees in the New York theatres. The daily attendance at the theatres aggregates 23,360, and the daily receipts $14,688.

—Mayor Hall, in his circular warning people against the various swindling enterprises of New York, has omitted the chief one, the council and officers of the city corporation.

—Rumor says that the Marchioness of Hastings is to be married. If the length of the mourning is in proportion to the worth of the deceased, the sooner she changes her condition the better.

—The Moncrieff system of handling heavy guns has been adopted in the British army. By that method, the recoil of the gun, after firing, causes it to sink behind the breastworks until it is reloaded.

—An Indiana marriage had to be repeated out of doors in a snow storm, because the minister was not certain whether the State line bisected the parlor in which the ceremony was performed, or not.

—Senator Sprague, not content with wholesale denunciations of the Senate and ominous prophecies of the future of the country, vents his wrath in a most undignified manner upon the editor of a Providence paper for daring to criticise his course.

—Mrs. Stanton tells Tilton that when he goes to the Senate, "some wise woman will sit on his right and some black man on his left." That is very discouraging for Tilton's chances of ever being there.

—Charles A. Dana, of the New York Sun, has been warned not to publish anything more against Sheriff O'Brien, on pain of mysterious assassination by some of the villains who are his friends and associates.

—At a late ball in Paris one of the Chinese Embassy lost his queue—demonstrating the fact that the Celestials have long been adepts in the civilized practice of crinigerous deception. — Exchange That is, he mis-cued.

—A bottle containing two human fingers has been found floating in a mill race at Mishawaka, Indiana, and the Mishawakans are puzzling their brains with the question how the rest of the body could have leaked out of the bottle.

And especially do we concede its priority in the matters of wholesale murder, bond robberies, and every department of crime.

—The miniature ship Red, White and Blue is going to race the Nonpareil life raft across the Atlantic, the last one in port to be the winner. Fatal results to a few of these useless and suicidal experiments might be of use as an example.

—In a recent speech, Mr. Gladstone, treating of wills, used the following circumlocution to express unwillingness to think of death: "An effeminate dislike to the contemplation of that eventuality in relation to which the execution of wills is necessary."

—Dr. E. M. Hale, a leading homeopathic physician of Chicago, has been expelled from the Homeopathic Society of that city, upon charges, one of which arraigned him as an ostensible teacher of pre-natal murder. That charge was based upon his published works.

—A young Englishman broke his horse's back while following the hounds recently, and the animal fell upon him in such a way that he could not extricate himself. Some days after he was found in that position, insensible from hunger and almost starved to death.

—A movement is on foot in St. Louis to form a stock company for the purpose of buying all the surplus wheat which comes to that port, and shipping it to New York via New Orleans. The ultimate object is to make St. Louis the distributing centre of the Mississippi valley.

—The New Orleans Crescent tells of a man in that city who died a lingering death by spontaneous combustion. If the story be true, which is very doubtful, the case presents a new phase of this most mysterious of diseases, for the few authenticated cases on record all describe it as almost instantaneous.

—Bishop Quintard recently confirmed a colored man in Memphis. The Ledger objects to such "confirmation strong" of negro equality, and says: "Had Paul lived in this age, he would have said: If negro equality maketh my Southern brother to offend, then I will not practice it, or force the doctrine upon others."

—The Boston Transcript says that the quotation "Consistency, thou art a jewel," is simply a popular expression, as is also "Though lost to sight, to memory dear." The Transcript is probably right: but if any of our readers think otherwise, will they please tell us where to find either of the lines.—Phil. Ledger.

—A "Scientific and Free Religious Association" has been formed in Chicago. Its leading idea is absolute free-thinking, and it is to embrace "alike believers and skeptics." If the present ratio of the multiplication of sects continues, it is only a question for the mathematicians how long it will be before their number equals that of the population of the country.

—Kodiak Island, in the Aleutian group, one of our Alaskan possessions, is covered with the cranberry vine, which produces fruit unsurpassed in size and flavor. The Kodiak fruit readily commands in the market from fifteen to twenty cents per pound more than the Oregon. The only attraction wanting in our Alaskan paradise has been discovered, Cranberries complete the catalogue.

—A chap out West challenges us to make "three more puns" on that cat of ours, that was chopped up in our press a few months ago. We "never take a dare." Does the Dubuque Daily Times know that we have inscribed upon Tibby's tomb the Latin adage, Hodie mihi, cras tibi—Died by Hoe, my eye! crushed Tibby? Possibly he is not aware that the Coroner's inquest brought in a verdict of "unavoidable Hoe-mice-ide. Furthermore, would it have occurred to the Western mind to call that cat's resurrection a Hoe-risin? (The horizon is a Western institution.) Immediately after the accident, the sausages in this market had a peculiar haut-gout about them. The way that press took off Pussy's fingers and toes reminded us of the wizard Herrmann. It seemed as if our Hoe was just the Press-to-digitate her!!! We shall not soon forget Bill Feeder's touching remark as he stroked her blood-stained downy fur, "It's wet down!" Send on them cigars, will yer?—Phil. Bulletin.

Trailing Arbutus.

The Providence Journal indulges in reflections, suggested by a present of Trailing Arbutus, the first and sweetest of the flowers of Spring. It says:

A box box of these delicious May flowers came to us from an attentive friend near "Frozen Point." We recognized the ineffable sweetness of the perfume before we untied the string. Laying lightly on a bed of soft moss and scarlet linchens, peeping out from the hardy green leaves, the clustering blossoms lifted their pink and white chalices, and dainty buds fresh with dew from the depths of their shadowy forest home. It was a pure pleasure to arrange them on their mossy bed, and carefully protected by glass, watch their unfolding in the genial atmosphere to which they had been transferred. With the simplicity and trusting innocence of their nature, they imagined themselves "somewhere an a sunny bank," in the warm sunshine. The delicates corollas untolded their hues like the pink sea shell; the timid buds peeped out from their starry points; and the green leaves, moss, and scarlet lichens softened and freshened in the moist atmosphere under the bell glass.

Here is a clustering bunch of twelve blossoms and buds, blending in delicious coloring the purest pearly white, with the dantiest rose pink, combining the fully expanded flower with the half opened loveliness which is so attractive, and side by side with the starry and unopened bud. As for the perfume, words cannot tell its sweetness, and we think only those who have recognized the presence of the flowers in the haunts where they love to dwell, by their breath borne on the breeze, can appreciate it. Here is another bunch more abundant in floral wealth, for there are nineteen pure white blossoms upon it in full development, and even while we count them two more corollos fall upon the table, their short story told, their brief life ended. Here is another trailing spray, with a clustering head of eight pinky buds, and here are five little hardy white points which are just taking the form of buds; they are the most interesting of all, for we can nurse them into perfect flowers. We only wish we had the talismanic power to imprison the whole collection and keep them for a picture all Summer.

But it is an association which gives half the charm to these darlings of the forest. We cannot look upon them without a stir in the pulse, and a memory of the days of the "Long Ago," when the labor was light which resulted in their possession, and when nothing contented us but the pleasure of finding them for ourselves. How, as we look upon them, the memories of the past return, when we have pulled out from under the leaves, trailing masses with their delicate blossoms fashioned by fairy fingers; when the hum of the bee has guided us to a clump of them on the sunny bank, in color like the morning dawn; or when by the side of a snowdrift their pale blossoms have glistened like stars.

As harbingers of spring; as associated with the joys of early days; as awakening the music of memories of "days that are no more;" for their saintly purity; for the wealth of fragrance hidden in their dewy petals; for the sweet humility which makes them hide their beauty under their twining tendrils; and for the serene unconsciousness which is their greatest charm, as every year renews the miracle of their fragile life, so every year renews the homage we delight to render them.

Love and Marriage.

That love is the leading element of the highest happiness in marriage; that love, while it lasts, covers a multitude of errors, privations, misfortunes—even sins—I do not doubt. But the question is, how far is love, when unaccompanied by any other of the conditions which I have mentioned as belonging to a perfect marriage, itself a justification of marriage? True love works wonders; but it cannot prevent the physical and mental ailments which develop themselves in people of feeble organisms. It cannot supply a lack of intelligence, a want of force in either husband or wife; and, as all housekeepers know, it cannot "make the pot boil." Love alone, when we consider its proverbial instability, and the small chance it has of surviving under bleak conditions, is certainly an insufficient capital upon which to commence the partnership of marriage. This is true of even the highest and strongest love; how much more so of the hasty and passionate attachments which lead to so many thousands of marriages!

There is an infinity of false sentiment about the passion of love. While I would not cast a doubt upon the existence of noble love, of devotion, and of passion which no sorrow or trial can tire, which is even refined and strengthened by suffering, yet the value, the office, the very nature of love in our ordinary life is greatly misunderstood. Love is the most exaggerated passion in literature. It holds, in our imaginations, a position which it does not hold in the life of one man or woman in a thousand. "Being the supreme passion of modern art," says a recent writer, "it becomes necessary to sound high its praises. We should suppose, if we read only novels and poetry, that the one thing interesting in life is the relation of the sexes and the anxieties of pairing. Very many young people are so dizzy with love that they are unable to go on with the other interests of life. They cannot see men as they are, engaged in their daily work, pursuing their various ends, and living a multifarious life, of which love is but a single element." Our regard for the passion oversteps the healthy limit, and becomes morbid; we judge of it untrnly; we attend to its prompting with absurd expectations; we teach ourselves that the passion is uncontrollable, and we regard it as a fate; and we glorify the supremacy of a first love, as if the heart did not require a training as varied as the intellect. Considering the widespread misery which our misconceptions of love wrought, we might doubt whether this passion was not the greatest misfortune, as well as the greatest blessing, in the world. We may conclude, in spite of Chaucer, that love's allegiance is not the only thing needful to make a permanently happy marriage.—"To Marry, or Not to Marry!" in April Galaxy.

THE dramatic censors of Paris have the eyes of a lynx. In a new piece at the Bouffes two travellers enter and a carpet-bag is given to a porter. "You should make that Auvergnat responsible," said one to the other. The remark offends the censorship, and is at once forbidden. Why? Because while Auvergne supplies Paris with porters, that province also gave M. Rouher to France—and the responsibility of ministers is contrary to the French Constitution.—Boston Post.

DR. WHITTIER

CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases. Syphilis in all its forms, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Orchitis, and all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.

A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhœa, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.

It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general pratice.

The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.

The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh, Pa.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, April 7, 1869.

The slight improvement noted in the markets yesterday still continues, and with a continuation of fine weather, we may look for a still further improvement and better times. Business can by no means be termed active, but it is a little better then what it has been, and the indications for the future look more encouraging. Flour is in better demand and a shade stronger, and there is more inquiry for Provisions. Grain is dull while Groceries are moderately active but with the exception of Sugars, which are a shade lower, unchanged. The stringency in money matters tends materially to depress business, but this drawback, it is probable, will be of short duration.

APPLES—Are coming in more freely, but with a steady demand, prices are maintained, ranging from $4@6 per bbl, as to quality.

APPLE BUTTER—Is quiet and unchanged, at 90@$1 per gallon.

BUTTER—There is a continued steady demand and we can report regular sales at 45 to 48@50, for prime to choice Roll—the outside figures only for small packages.

BEANS—In good supply and rather dull but unchanged; $3,50 to the trade, and $3,75 in a retail way.

CRANBERRIES—Sales at $18@$22.

CHEESE—Market almost bare; sales of New York Goshen at 24@25.

CARBON OIL—May be quoted at 30@31 for standard brands, in a jobbing way.

DRIED FRUIT—Peaches dull but unchanged, with small sales of quarters at 14 and prime halves at 18@19. Apples 10@12, as to quality.

EGGS—In rather better supply, though fresh packed still command 28.

HAY—There is a continued good demand, in consequence of the fact that there is little or none coming in from the country, and prices are well sustained at $24@25 for prime tight pressed.

HOMINY—$5,75@6 per bbl.

HEMP—$225 per ton.

PROVISIONS—The demand is more active, and we can report regular sales at 14@14¼ for Shoulders; 16¾@17 for Ribbed, and 18@18¼ for Clear Sides, and 19½ for Sugar Cured Hams. Steamed Lard, 19¼@19¼, and kettle rendered, 20@20½. Mess Pork $31,50@$32,00.

POTATOES—In fair demand but unchanged. 75@80 per bushel.

PEANUTS—10 cts per pound.

MAPLE SUGAR—Sales in gallon jugs at $1,50@2 as to quality.

GRAIN—Wheat is dull and nominal at $1,45@1,50 for prime red Winter. Oats steady but unchanged at 65@66 on track and 68@70 in store. Rye may be quoted at $1,40@1,43, with a sale of 300 bushels at outside figure. Corn is dull, although the arrivals are light and the supply somewhat reduced: we continue to quote at 70@72 for White and 75@77 for prime Yellow. Barley is still quoted at $2,10@2,15 for prime to choice Spring.

SEEDS—There is a very fair demand for Clover, with sales at $10@10,50, and Timothy at $3,50@3,75. Flaxseed quoted at $2,45@2,50.

SALT—Is quiet but steady, and is still quoted at $2 by the car load.

FEATHERS—A shade firmer, and we now quote live geese feathers at 80 to the trade, and the usual advance in a retail way.

FLOUR—The demand continues fair with a fair volume of business in the aggregate, though prices are unchanged. Spring Wheat brands $6,25 to 6,75@7. Winter Wheat $7,50@8. Rye Flour $7,00@7,25. The following are the Pearl Mill prices for their brands of flour made of the best wheat: Pearl Mill three star green brand, in barrels, $9,00 in sacks $9,00; double extra in barrels $9,00, and in sacks at $8,90; Pearl Mill family in barrels, $8,40, and in sacks at $8,00, Spring Wheat brands in barrels $7,30, and in sacks $7,00. The Pittsburgh City Mills prices are as follows: Choice White Winter Wheat Flour, in bbls, $9,30, and sacks $9,00, choice Red Winter Wheat Flour, in bbls, $7,75, and in sacks $7,50; choice Spring Wheat Flour, in bbls, $7,30, and in sacks, $7 per bbl.

GROCERIES—There is a slightly improved demand, but with the exception of Sugars, which have declined, there are no changes in prices. The following are the leading quotations:

SUGARS—Crushed 17¾; "A" Coffee 16¾; "B" 16¼; Ex. "C," 16; Cuba, 13@15; Porto Rico, 13@15; New Orleans, 13@16, as to quality.

MOLASSES—New Orleans, 85@90; Porto Rico, 68@78.

SYRUPS—White Honey Drips, $1,25; Bay State, $1,15; Silver Drips, $1; fair to medium, 75@95.

COFFEE—Fair to Good Rio, 20@22; Prime, 24½@25; Choice, 26@26¼.

RICE—Carolina, 11 to 11½c; Rangoon, good, 10c.

STARCH—Pearl, 7½; Silver Gloss, 12½c, and Corn Starch, 13c.

CONCENTRATED LYE—$8,00 per case.

FRUITS—Layer Raisins, $4,00 per box; Matt do, $3,25; Prunes, 15c; Currants, 14c.

SPICES—Cassia, 90c; Cloves, 45c; grain Pepper, 36 to 38c; Allspice, 33c; Nutmegs, $1,50.

BAR LEAD—12½c; Shot, $3,50 per bag.

SOAPS—"Babbit's," 12c; "Oakely's," 11½c; Rosin, 5 to 7c; "Dobbin's," 15c; Wax, 10c; Chem. Olive, 9½c.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, April 7, 1869.

There is really nothing new or important to be said about the oil market in a general way. There is evidently a clog somewhere as it is only occasionally that the wheels move at all, and then the motion is very feeble, scarcely perceptible. Where the difficulty lies we do not knonw, but that there is something wrong is evident from the very small volume of business for several days past. In regard to prices there is no material change compared with yesterday; the feeling, if anything, seemed to be a little stronger, and, apparently, the pressure to sell was not so great, and in regard to the future, opinions seem to be pretty evenly divided. The market is in that peculiar condition, that it would take but very little to turn it either way, though the events of this week thus far, have favored the low-priced men; how long it will continue so time alone will develope. There are many arguments on both sides, most of which we have given, recently.

CRUDE.—The Crude market compared with yesterday, has undergone no quotable change; the demand for both present and future deliveries appears to be light, which is owing to the fact that buyers generally are holding off in hopes of a still further decline. But two sales reported, 500 bbls on spot at 14¾, and 500 at 15, both 40 to 46. Quotations may be fairly given for spot or seller till July, at 14¾ bid and 15 asked: offer to buy 500 or 1,000 each May and June, at 15½, and July to December may be quoted at 17.

REFINED—The Refined market was also quiet and unchanged to-day: sales in lots of 2,500 for the last half of May at 33¼, and 500 for June at 33¼. Offers to buy May and June together, at 33¼; May to September, at 35¾@36; and seller, all the year, at 38.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily with eight feet two inches in the channel by the Monongahela marks.

The weather yesterday was very changeable, with frequent showers.

The Maggie Hays from St. Louis, is the only transient arrival we have to report. The Camelia from Nashville was due last night, and will doubtless be found in port this morning.

The Kate Putnam, departed for Nashvill with an excellent trip, including quite a number of passengers, and 100,000 feet of lumber.

The Nick Wall, Capt. Thomas Poe, is announced to leave for St. Louis and Fort Benton to-day without fail. The Nick is a bran new craft, and is admirably constructed for the mountain trade.

The new steamer Australia will be the first boat out for New Orleans.

We clip the following from the St. Louis Democrat: When Capt. Donaldson, late of the Republic, left this city the other day, he was bound to Pittsburgh, where he intended to contract for an immense steamer for the St. Louis and New Orleans trade.

The Bellevernon, from New Orleans, will be here within the next week. The Glendale was to have left St. Louis for Pittsburgh on Tuesday.

Com. James Rees was the recipient yesterday of a pet bear, which was sent her by some friends in St. Louis, on the Maggie Hays. The Commodore is like the man who drew the elephant, he does not know what to do with the animal.

—The R. C. Gray has laid up at Cincinnati to await an opening.

—The Fort Gibson, from Cincinnati, arrived at Little Rock, on Friday last.

—The Bayard, Capt. Geo. D. Moore, is the regular packet for Parkersburg today leaving at noon.

—The Northern Line Packet Company is paying roustabouts $40, and deck hands $45 per month.

—Parties were in Memphis the other day, negotiating for the steamer Hesper for the Osage river trade.

—The Emma No. 3, left Cincinnati for New Orleans on Monday. Pilots—Alf Jolly and David Dunseth.

—The Ohio No. 4 made the run from Manchester to Maysville, a distance of twelve miles, against a heavy head wind, in thirty-two minutes.

—The barge sunk by the Minnesota at Burlington bridge was loaded with sacks of wheat, barley, oats and onions. It was afterward towed to the Iowa shore.

—Messrs. J. P. & C. W. Kelser have settled with the insurance companies of this city in relation to the insurance of the Gerard B. Allen, by taking the wreck in part payment.

—Ninety-eight barrels of flour and three casks of bacon, from the wreck of the steamer Ruth, were sold at Vicksburg on the 29th, by Wm. McRae, auctioneer. The flour averaged $2,88 per barrel.

—Two thousand bales of cotton at Memphis were awaiting shipment to New Orleans on the 31st. The Olive Branch had engaged 1,000 bales of the lot, and the other 500 will go on the next boat down.

—The new and splendid Northern Line packet Minneapolis, Capt. Rhodes, is now engaging freight and passengers for St. Louis and St. Paul, and will take her departure in a day or two. Here is an excellent opportunity for persons going west.

—Capt. Henry Simmes' new boat, Utah, is nearly completed. She may raise steam at St. Louis this week. Her hull is stout and her build suited for a mountain boat. The Emile Labarge is also assuming the proportions of a fine side-wheeler.

—The New Orleans Times says that the steamer Mexico, while on her last trip off Tortugas, was more than an hour and a half passing through a sea of snakes, writhing and twisting through the water as thick as minnows in a country brook. They were of all sizes, from the ordinary green water snake of two feet, to monsters—genuine sea serpents—of fourteen to fifteen feet in length.

—The R. E. Lee made the run from New Orleans to Vicksburg, this trip in 29 hours 35 minutes. This, says the Vicksburg Herald, is doubtless the fastest time on record, if we make allowances for the lack of pine knots furnished by relays as were the Eclipse and Shotwell. The Eclipse made the time to this place in 29 hours and 11 minutes, and had a steamer with a load of pine knots in the bend just above here waiting for her, as were other boats below here, which cracked on all the steam she could carry when the Eclipse came up alongside of her. The Lee had on board a regiment of soldiers.

—A St. Paul dispatch under date of Monday says: The ice in front of the city commenced moving yesterday. A piece half a mile square fell down the stream about one hundred yards, carrying with it the steamers Chippewa Falls and Ellen Hovoy and two Government store boats. This noon another piece moved, taking with it the wharf-boat, which struck the Government steamer Montana, and carried it down a few yards, inflicting some damage on its bow. There are serious apprehensions expressed that if further movements take place before the ice is more broken, considerable damage will be done, not only to the above named boats, but also to the Lake Superior Railway bridge, on which the ice is now pressing heavily. The river is very high and rising rapidly.

THE "Crawford County system," of making popular nominations, has just been tried by the Republicans of Bedford county, and entirely to their satisfaction.

J. TODD HUTCHINSON, Esq., editor of the Alleghenian, a Republican, and as clever a gentleman as Cambria county contains, has been appointed Postmaster of Ebensburg, a lucrative position and one for which he is eminently qualified and deserving.

THE Darien Canal treaty has not been definitely rejected by the Colombian legislature. The report, from a Committee of its Senate, against ratification, is not sure of the legislative concurrence. On the contrary, late advices speak of the confirmation of the treaty as certain.

PRINCE FERDINAND, of Cobourg, ex-King-Consort of Portugal, refuses to accept the proffered Spanish Crown. It is for the future to determine whether this declination is sincerely absolute, or whether the same offer is to be thrice made, upon the Iberian Lupercal, and not to be at last put by.

THE municipal elections in Ohio have resulted generally in favor of the Republicans. Columbus gives 500 majority for the opposition, against 1,800 for them last October. Cleveland re-elects her Democratic Mayor, with a Republican majority of five in the Council. Newark is Democratic as usual. This includes about all the "Democratic victories" among our Ohio neighbors this year.

THE PLEASANT VALLEY RAILWAY COMPANY have circulated a petition, which, when we saw it yesterday, was thirty-four feet long, and closely filled with signatures, asking for authority from the Legislature to extend their road from its present terminus in Allegheny into Pittsburgh, by such route as the several Councils may authorize. This monster petition is as indication that the popular sentiment favors any movement for the increase of passenger railway facilities.

HAVING deferred the Ohio River Bridge question to the eve of adjournment, the House now proposes to re-enact its former bill, providing for a survey by Government engineers, and prohibiting the erection of any bridge with less than four hundred feet span until the further action of Congress. This may pass the House, but will doubtless be smothered in the Senate, as before. The affair looks as if the friends of navigation-rights were sold again; in this, however, we may be agreeably disappointed.

THE message of President GRANT to Congress is a well worded and wisely dictated document. He is cognizant of the hardships to be entailed on the lately rebellious States remaining unreconstructed, by the proposed early adjournment of Congress without making any provisions for their readmittance, and urges consideration in the cases of Virginia and Mississippi, and an early chance to comply with the provisions of the XIVth Amendment. We sincerely hope that Congress will recede from its determination to inflict further punishment, by delay of action, on those States, and adopt such measures as will permit their immediate entrance into their former positions in the Union.

THE Pacific Railway quarrel has reached Congress, Senators debating the respective merits of the rival roads, and their claims for the extension of their lines, with an earnestness which certainly evinces a deep interest on each side of the question. In the meantime, it is understood that, instead of working toward a common point of meeting, the Eastern and Western companies are about to overlap each other, their respective tracks shooting by that junction over parallel lines. Let Congress fix a precise point for their meeting, and then give to the companies the option either of junction there, or of continuing their roads respectively all the way through, but without more subsidies. We are all agreed that two roads will be better than one only, and in this way we might secure them.

DISCOURAGED by the fate, in the Senate, of its former joint resolution for the encouragement of Cuban filibustering, the House has now undertaken the sole charge of that question, and, ignoring the Senate, proposes, upon its own responsibility, to address the President in favor of the early recognition of the belligerent rights of the insurgents. It is not to be presumed, however, that the Executive will disregard the constitutional functions of the Senate, touching all questions of foreign policy. This action of the Representatives will count simply for an expression of opinion from the popular branch; beyond that, it would be grossly an invasion of the rights of the Senate, and must entirely fail of effect. The President's sympathies are said to run with the annexation movement, but a superior sense of duty will govern all of his official acts.

MR. BECK, of Congress, belongs to a class of orators who should he held up to our school boys to emulate and pattern after. His language is precise and pointed. His ideas are elegant. He boldly asserted yesterday that Mr. BULLOCK's chances for the Senate from Georgia were "as slim as the chance of making a silk purse out of a sow's ear." What a beautiful synonym! Did the name of BULLOCK suggest that of the other quadruped? But Mr. BECK said more. A certain bill was the most unjust and iniquitous "ever hatched in Congress." Now, BUTLER, if not a game cock, is cockeyed, and as he is the father of the objectionable bill, our friend BECK must feel that his hatching allusion was quite happy. Persevere, Mr. BECK, DAN WEBSTER has yet to find a successor, and who knows but you may fill the bill.

RHODE ISLAND elected her Governor, with a full State and Legislative ticket, yesterday. A year ago, BURNSIDE (Rep.) for Governor, had 4,309 majority upon a total vote a little exceeding fifteen thousand. GRANT, in November, had 6,443 majority upon an aggregate vote of 19,538—about one-half that which was cast by our own Allegheny county. The newly elected Legislature, assembling in May, will act upon the XVth Article.

The election resulted in the choice of SETH PADDLEFORD, of Providence, Republican, for Governor by about 3,000 majority, in an aggregate vote falling nearly fifty per cent. short of that polled in the Presidential contest. The complexion of the Senate remains about the same, 27 Republicans to 6 Democrats; that of the House 61 to 11, securing a Republican majority on joint ballot of 71. The contest was on the suffrage amendment, and Rhode Island has nobly responded to the voice of Progress.

SENATORIAL WRECKS.

Good people, of all shades of political sentiment, will unite in deploring the melancholy spectacles which have been occasionally—alas! too frequently!—exhibited in the American Senate-chamber, by Senators who, growing reckless of the commonest decencies of public life, have disgraced themselves, dishonored their States and disgusted all their countrymen. California, Delaware, Rhode Island, each in their turn, have had occasion to bewail the intellectual and physical wreck of their honored and trusted representatives. The latest, as it is apparently the most hopeless, of these wretched illustrations of a complete Senatorial wreck, is at present engaging the public commiseration.

A WISE ENACTMENT.

The Legislature of Pennsylvania has done a good and wise thing in the passage of the act allowing the Governor the privilege of commuting the death penalty to imprisonment for life or a term of years. There have been many cases in the past where other punishment than death would have afforded ample atonement for the offense committed, but the Chief Executive was so hedged in by the law as to either issue the death warrant, grant full pardon or permit the wretched convict to endure a torment even worse than death, of living in a state of dreadful suspense within a county jail. Perhaps the crime he committed was, in the eyes of the law, murder in the first degree, but it might have been surrounded by attenuating circumstances which made the visitation of the extreme penalty of the law an outrage committed in the name of Justice. To grant the prisoner full pardon, however, was an exercise of mercy for which the murderer was unworthy, and the Governor was compelled to issue a warrant for an execution when he should have been clothed with the power to commute the death penalty to a term of imprisonment commensurate with the crime. We need go no further than to quote the case of HESTER VAUGHN, the murderess of her infant. Her deed of blood was committed under such circumstances as to cause the public here and elsewhere to deplore her misfortune, and to wish that the death penalty could be set aside. That she was guilty of a dark crime, and one which calls to Heaven for vengeance, her most ardent friends could not deny; but an almost universal public opinion held that although rightfully convicted, the sentence should not be visited upon her. Imprisonment for life or a term of years would fully answer all that justice required. The Governor was powerless. He could not permit the guilty to escape altogether, neither could he bring himself to sign the death warrant. So the case rested, and previous to the enactment of the present law the unfortunate woman lived betwixt the hope for life and fear of death in the county prison, where, perhaps, she would have been permitted to continue for years to come, laboring under the dreadful uncertainty.

We look upon the law as a wise and humane measure, and as a step looking toward the complete abolishment of the barbarous and unchristian law which demands blood for blood. Capital punishment should be wiped out altogether from the statutes, and imprisonment for life, or a term of years, substituted therefor. Public opinion has been undergoing a change in this direction and we are glad that the members of the Legislature have had the moral courage to take an advance step towards the reform that must eventually follow. Let us have less hanging, and more imprisonment, and the morals of society will be none the worse from the change.

CHEAP FREIGHTS.

Notwithstanding that our country is literally checquered with railway tracks, joining cities, towns and villages together as single communities, many people are wont to turn back and wish for the rosy times when not a rail stretched its length on the ground and when all the transportation of freight and passengers was by water and wagon. True, we could not afford to return to that era, and, hardly appreciating the fact that we have made rapid progress as a nation and developed from a weak and insignificant country into one whose boundaries have enlarged so steadily as to close in a small world of our own, the grumblers can enjoy the innocent recreation of bewailing past times, while men with more advanced ideas can extract from their discontent the germ of trouble—a lack of cheap freight facilities.

The railways of the country have attained superiority in many respects over those of foreign lands, but in this matter they are away behind them and must take their first lesson in that department of economy. The high cost of living in the United States is mainly attributable to the heavy tariffs imposed by railway companies for moving to markets the products of the farm, mine and factory. Had we a reform in that direction and cheap tariffs established on all our railways, it would be a much easier matter to obtain a livelihood, as a reduction of fully twenty per cent. could be obtained in the prices of articles consumed, and the cost of living.

The subject of cheaper rates for both passengers and freights has commenced to excite attention, and we are glad to observe that in response to a desire expressed by J. N. MCCULLOUGH, Esq., General Superintendent of the Pittsburgh Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway, Mr. JOSEPH H. MOORE, for many years Freight Agent in Chicago, and a gentleman who has devoted much attention and study to the subject, has published his views, setting forth that it is entirely practical for the railways to furnish taansportation at reduced rates, without the probability of diminishing their dividends. He reasons that the water carriage, which is now certainly the only avenue for cheap transportation, is an opposition easily to be overcome. Shippers prefer water to rail, in transporting, simply because it is cheaper, and if the railroads can carry staple articles to market, the year round, at about the same rate per ton, as the average season rates by water, the rail most assuredly would secure preference

Carefully prepared statistics are furnished to justify the conclusion, at least so far as the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway is concerned, that railroad lines may be worked, where the tonnage is large, so as entirely to supersede water carriage when lakes, canals and rivers must be used between the termini of a long route; and that the capacity of a single line of railway is equal, if not superior, to that of five canals, as the speed of the trains would be three times that of canal-boat movement during the season of navigation, with the five months' winter tonnage in favor of the all-rail lines.

The people are pecuniarily interested in cheap freights, and we hope the movement looking towards a reduction of the present high tariffs will not be without some practical benefit in securing early reform.

A NEIGHBORLY COURTESY.

The Connecticut election took place on Monday, and its results were communicated by telegraph to the Pittsburgh press the same night. We have searched the editorial columns of the Post, for some mention of these results, but in vain. Not a syllable, or a whisper is heard from our neighbor, on that interesting subject. Indeed, Wednesday's Post says not a word about that election, except a brief paragraph of five lines, half smothered among its news-items, murders, billiard-matches, fires and all that sort of thing.

The explanation of this silence is, however, palpable to its charitable cotemporaries. The Post, for the moment overwhelmed with grief, is preparing some suitable utterance, and takes time to think about it. If, however, our neighbor has insuperable difficulties in its choice of expressions, for the treatment of this melancholy visitation of Providence upon the Democratic partiality for a "white man's government," it may suffer us to come kindly to its aid. If the Post, in its dazed bewilderment really don't know what to say, but with its customary conscientiousness is anxious to display its attachment for the truth, we submit the annexed paragraph, which is cordially tendered for its use—to be leaded up as editorial and appear in to-morrow's Post, to wit:

THE CONNECTICUT ELECTION.

The issue involved in the XVth Article, the latest Radical dodge to rob white men of their political rights, was submitted to the people of Connecicut on Monday last. The canvass had been a thorough one, and the discussion of principles exhaustive; the anterior prejudices of the white masses of that State had been decidedly with the Democracy; the perils of the threatened negro domination under Radical auspices were minutely considered, and the entire question, embracing principles of such vital moment to the Caucasian race, was, by the consent of all parties in Connecticut, to stand or fall by the popular decision on its merits. We regret now to state that this decision is against us; that the Radicals secure an increased legislative majority; that they have turned out our Democratic Governor and State officers, and two of our three Democratic Congressmen, thus beating us at all points. We accept the disastrous situation, but still renew again, upon the altar of the Constitution (as it was), our sternest vows of an inextinguishable hostility to such "nigger-loving" Radicalism.

There, neighbor, something like that will fill your bill, and your readers, who don't usually see the GAZETTE, will believe you wrote it.

MORE "FOUL BLOTS"

We find good reading in articles, from opposition journals of Monday and Tuesday, on the Connecticut election. The Pittsburgh Post has'nt found tongue, up to this writiug, but other prints of kindred politics are more frank or less discreet. For example, said the Boston Post of Monday:

The State officers who have administered the government for the past two years can be re-elected if the effort made to-day is earnest and unflinching. Then, to make the triumph complete, and round it off so as to be effective, it is necessary to carry the Legislature, thus blocking the game that is playing for more power through the fifteenth amendment, and declaring that it is in the people that sovereign authority still resides, and not in a fractional Senate, whose seats are freely purchased from venal party legislatures. We urge upon the gallant Democracy of our sister State to give every hour of this single day to the work before them, and redeem this State of the original thirteen from its threatened degradation at the feet of Congress.

Sound Democracy, every word of it! "Venal legislatures"—"threatened degradation"—these are good hits, in our own Post's best vein. Says the Philadelphia Age of Tuesday:

The Democrats made a heroic fight for principle. Each foot of ground was contested with stubborn and unyielding tenacity. The true men of the party headed the column, and the old cry of the Union, the Constitution and the rights of white men was the rallying slogan. * * Promises were sown broadcast over the whole State and men seduced by the weight of national plunder and pickings. These were the potent causes which caused the defeat of the Democratic party in Connecticut, and the country should heed the lesson. The Radicals no longer rely upon a fair, open, honest canvass and election to elevate their men to power. They merely use the ballot-box as a blind. The work is done by money and promises. * * Against this whole system the Democrats of Connecticut protested upon the stump and by their ballots, and, although beaten, they are not disgraced or dismayed. * * The battle will be renewed, and again and again until the foul blot of Radical rule is erased from the history of the State. * * In behalf of the Democracy of the Keystone State, we tender to our brethren of Connecticut praise and thanks for their conduct on the battle-field. They deserved success—if they did not achieve it.

This is better! An honest confession is said to be good for the soul. Connecticut Democrats were bought up—and their Keystone brethren thank them for it. We would'nt advise our neighbor to print that indiscreet confession. He will do better, to adopt the little editorial which we have prepared for his columns. We take great pains to keep that bargain and sale business very shady. It is neither graceful nor kind to twit upon facts like that.

Will the Pittsburgh Post have the manhood, to confess that its Connecticut friends have been fairly beaten, in a square issue, on the principle of the XVth Article?

Extensive Conflagration "La Belle" Steel Works Partially Destroyed.

Tuesday evening, between ten and eleven o'clock, a fire broke out in the charcoal in the "bloom house" of the "La Belle" Steel Works, Messrs. Reiter & Co., located on the bank of the Allegheny river, in the Fifth ward, Allegheny City, near the lower Saw Mill Run Ferry. The watchman on duty attempted to extinguish the flames, but finding this to be impossible sounded an alarm from box 5, which brought the Fire Department out. There was a difficulty in giving the alarm, owing to the fact that some of the boxes in the vicinity had been provided with new locks, and the watchman was thus compelled to hunt up a box which could be unlocked by the key in his possession. By the time the engines were on the ground the roof of the main building was almost destroyed. This part of the works contained the most valuable part of the machinery, which waa badly damaged by the falling timbers and heat. By strenuous exertions the axle factory, spring shop and the converting and cast-steel houses were saved, without being greatly injured. The "check house" on the river side of the building was consumed. The firemen labored under great difficulty, by reason of the short supply of water, there being but one fire plug in the vicinity.

The "La Bell" works were among the largest in the vicinity, and employed between one hundred and fifty and two hundred hands. The buildings were of brick one story high, covered with a sheet iron roof covered with tar and gravel. The loss, as yet, can hardly be determined, but it is estimated at between $40,000 and $50,000. The firm are insured for $36,000, $6,000 in the Peoples, $6,000 in the Pittsburgh, and the remaining $24,000 divided between five companies, of which Messrs. Loomis and Collingwood are agents.

The work of removing the debris has been commenced, and the works will be put in operation again as soon as the damage can be repaired.

Reformed Presbytery of Pittsburgh—Proposal for Conference from Suspensionists—Delegates to Synod.

The Reformed Presbytery of Pittsburgh held its regular semi-annual meeting in the First Reformed Presbyterian church yesterday. Presbytery was called to order at eleven o'clock. Rev. Robert Stevenson was chosen Moderator, and Rev. John Alford, Stated Clerk.

Rev. W. H. Reid, of the Northern Presbytery, being present, was invited to take a seat as a consultative member.

The Committee, appointed at the last meeting of Presbytery to draft a pastoral letter to the churches under its care, reported that they had discharged their duty. The letter was read and approved and the Committee discharged.

A petition from Pleasant Hill Congregation, praying to be united with Herman Congregation was received, and its consideration postponed till the next meeting of Presbytery.

A number of persons connected with the First Church, Allegheny, presented papers which they desired to be transmitted to General Synod, in connection with the Presbyterial report. Their request was granted.

Petitions for preaching from the several vacancies, under the care of Presbytery, were then received and referred to the Committee on Supplies.

In the afternoon, Rev. Thomas Johnston appeared on the floor of Presbytery and announced that he had been delegated by those members who had suspended their relations to Synod in June last to invite the Presbytery to meet with them in Allegheny City, at four o'clock, for the purpose of having a friendly conference. Most of the members of Presbytery expressed their views in relation to the proposed conference, after which the following resolution was adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That this Presbytery reciprocates very cordially the fraternal spirit breathed by Mr. Johnston in his address, and assures those brethren who seceded from Prebsytery on the 15th of June, 1868, by suspending relations to General Synod, that, so soon as they shall rescind their obnoxious action aforesaid, and yield submission to the will and authority of the Supreme Judicatory of the Church, the doors of this Presbytery will be thrown open for their return, and they will be welcomed most heartily to seats on its floor.

The following gentlemen were appointed to attend General Synod on the 19th of May next: Ministers, Dr. Douglas and Rev. John Alford; general alternate. Rev. Robert Stevenson; Elders, Messrs. R. C. Miller and J. M. Imbrie; general alternates, Messrs. Dickson and John Black.

After a considerable amount of routine business, Presbytery adjourned to meet in Beulah on the first Wednesday of October next, at eleven o'clock A. M.

Second Reformed Presbyterian Church, Allegheny—Pastor Elected.

A congregational meeting of the Second Reformed Presbyterian Church, Allegheny, was held on Monday evening, for the purpose of electing a pastor to fill the pulpit made vacant by the resignation of the venerable Dr. Sproull, who had ministered there for nearly half a century, and resigned to take a professorship in the Reformed Presbyterian Seminary of Allegheny. The election had been anticipated for some time, and was held in the basement of the new church, Sandusky street—nearly all the members being present, with a large number of spectators from sister churches. The candidates were; Rev. David Wilson, son of the late Prof. Wilson; Rev. J. W. Sproull, son of the retiring pastor; Rev. David Gregg, son of L. Gregg, Esq., and Rev. James R. Newell, son-in-law of Dr. Sproull. The meeting was presided over by Rev. Mr. Hunter, who conducted the preliminary exercises. The members then proceeded to ballot for pastor, the elders receiving ballots at the platform. The Clerk, Mr. Wm. Will, announced the result, as follows:

Rev. David Wilson	126
Rev. J. W. Sproull	96
Rev. David Gregg	17
Rev. James R. Newell	2

The Moderator announced that Mr. Wilson, having received a majority of all the votes cast, was duly elected pastor of the congregation. The announcement was hailed with demonstrations of applause from the friends of Mr. Wilson, which was promptly checked by the Moderator. A motion to make the vote unanimous was made, but quite a number voted in the negative. The result of the election was anything but satisfactory to those who preferred the defeated candidates, but if right counsels prevail the minority will "accept the situation" and allay all personal feeling.

Failed to Appear.

Sunday morning Thomas Miller made information before the Mayor, charging Thomas Hughes and John Dignam with felonious assault and battery. Miller, it appears, occupies a room in the McTighe building, on Grant street, and he alleges that as he was entering the hall which leads to his room about eleven o'clock, Saturday night, he was attacked by two men, one of whom seized him by the throat and attempted to garrote him, while the other struck him on the head several times with some heavy instrument. He cried murder, and the attacking parties fled, and as they passed out of the door met several persons who had been attracted to the place by the cries of Miller, and it appears that one of them was afterwards identified by one of the parties referred to. Hughes was arrested and held for a hearing on Monday, when at his request the hearing was postponed until twelve o'clock M., yesterday. At the appointed time the defendant was present ready for the hearing, but Miller, the prosecuter, was non est. The hearing was consequently postponed again, and will take place on Friday. An attachment was issued for Miller, and placed in the hands of officers Cupples and Moon who, after a short search, found him in the sixth ward, Allegheny, and he was taken to the Mayor's office, when he was required to give bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance as a witness.

Larceny of a Ring.

Yesterday afternoon Alderman Lynch's police arrested Edward O'Connor, a lad about twelve years old, charged with stealing a gold ring, valued at $25, from Mrs. Mary Quinn, residing on Pennsylvania avenue, near Tunnel street. The lad, it seems, was noticed loitering about the yard of Mrs. Quinn, who invited him in the house to dinner. He accepted the offer, and was sitting at the table eating when the lady went into the yard for a bucket of water. Upon returning she noticed something suspicious about the boy, but thought nothing of it until about half an hour afterwards, when the loss of the ring was discovered. The lad was soon after arrested and confessed to having taken the article from a pitcher in the cupboard, during the absence of the lady. He had given it to his sister, but it was returned promptly when the circumstances were made known to her. The Alderman, on the boy's confession, had him committed to the house of refuge.

The Allegheny Controllership.

Several weeks ago Mr. R. B. Francis, at present the efficient and gentlemanly occupant of the City Controller's office, Allegheny, signified his intention of resigning the position, and desired Councils to appoint a successor. The matter was not officially brought before Councils at the time, but the understanding was that as soon as a suitable person for the office could be secured the resignation would be accepted.

Mr. Francis resigns the Controllership to assume the duties of cashier of the Diamond Savings Bank, an institution which has been organized within a year past. The fitting up of a house for the Bank will be completed in about three weeks, in view of which fact we understand, the resignation will be formally presented to Councils to-night. Mr. Francis will, however, remain to assist his successor in the business of the office until the Bank is ready for operation.

When the proposed vacancy became known, a number of applicants for the position began to press their claims, all of whom, however, withdrew from the contest with the exception of three, from which number, in all probability, a selection will be made to-night. The candidates at present are Mr. C. W. Benney, of the First ward, Captain M'Cleane, of the Third ward, and Mr. J. C. Porter, of the Fourth ward.

Mr. Benney is well known throughout the city, having formerly represented his ward in the City Councils, of which body he was at the time President. He is at present one of the firm of Pratt & Benney, Hatters, and has an extensive business acquaintance. Capt. McCleane was, until lately, in the Custom House, Pittsburgh. He bears a high reputation among his acquaintances and those having dealings with him. Mr. Porter, for the last two years, has been engaged in active business in the Fourth ward, and has always been highly regarded by those with whom he had intercourse. Either of the three gentlemen, judging from their reputations, would in every respect be perfectly competent and give satisfaction in the office. The contest thus far has been quite spirited, each candidate of course working and feeling confident of success, but from all we can learn the chances are pretty even. It is quite likely, however, the action of Councils to night will settle the question.

Almost a Conflagration.

Yesterday morning, near seven o'clock an alarm of fire was struck from box 21, corner of Pasture Lane and Taylor avenue, Allegheny. The alarm was caused by the burning of the floor in the boiler shop at the outer depot of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad. The flames were quickly extinguished by the workmen, who had assembled for work just at the time. The loss was very slight. The origin of the fire is not known. Had it happened a short time earlier, the result might have been quite disastrous.

Bulk Boat Sunk.

Tuesday evening a bulk oil boat, containing about eleven hundred barrels of oil, was sunk near Freeport while being towed toward this city by the steamer "John Hanna." The property was valued at $6,930, and was owned by Messrs. Fisher Bros. The accident was caused by the giving way of a stancheon on the boat, to which the line was attached, and which allowed it thus to sweep round and be run down by the steamer before it could be checked up.

TRUSSES AND HERNIA.

The sad and deplorable condition of many who are afflicted with hernia or rupture of the bowels, calls loudly for some efficient and unmistakable remedy that will not only in every case give efficient relief, but in many cases effect a radical and thorough cure. These cases of hernia have become so frequent, that it is computed that one-sixth of the male population are said to be troubled, in some way or another, with this terrible ailment; and in very many cases do not know where to apply for an appropriate remedy, oftentimes not knowing whether an appliance is really needed or not; and if it should be needed, they often do not know where or to whom they should make application The world is full of Trusses for the retention and cure of this lamentable evil, oftentimes an incontestable proof of their total and inadequate fitness to relieve the sufferer. This need not be; Dr. Keyser, at his new medicine store, No. 167 Liberty street, is abundantly supplied with every appliance, needful to the retention and relief of this terrible affliction, so that every one can be properly fitted at a moderate cost, with the full assurance that the appliance is the best that the mechanical department of surgery can afford. The Doctor has pursued the investigation of hernia with more than ordinary care for over thirty years, so that the afflicted can place implicit reliance on his skill and integrity with the full assurance that they will not only get the best truss, suitable to the case, but likewise a thorough and efficient knowledge of its proper application.

There are many persons who not only sacrifice their health, but even their lives, for want of a proper truss, or a truss properly applied. Strangulated and irreducable rupture, is a far more common ailment now than in former years; and may we not justly arrive at the conclusion, that its frequency is often occasioned by the neglect and carelessness of the sufferers themselves. No one would be regarded as sane or excusable who would go for a whole winter without the proper clothing to shield them from the inclemency of the weather, but, at the same time, it is thought a light affair to suffer for years with a protrusion that not only subjects the person to inconvenience, but even places life itself in jeopardy. Those of our readers who may be unfortunate to need appliances of this kind cannot act more wisely than to cut this advertisement out and preserve it, so as to enable them to retain the place where such important preservers of life and health are to be procured.

WOMAN AND HER NEEDS.

Subject by the law of nature to many physical afflictions from which man is exempt, woman is peculiarly entitled to the best efforts of medical science in her behalf. For a majority of the ailments to which her sex is exclusively liable, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS are warmly recommended on the authority of wives, mothers and nurses, who have tested their genial tonic and regulating properties, and "know whereof they speak;" and also with the sanction of able physicians, who have administered the preparation to their female patients, in obstinate cases of functional derangement, with the happiest results. Almost all female complaints of special character are complicated with mental gloom and despondency, and the gentle and lasting exhilerating effects of this wholesome medicated stimulant adapts admirably for cases of this complex nature. As a remedy for the hysteria and mental hallucinations which sometimes mark both the earlier and the later crisis in the life of a woman, it has no equal in the repertory of the healing art, and as a means of relieving the nausea and other unpleasant feelings which precede maternity, it is equally efficacious. Nursing mothers also find it an admirable invigorant. It is highly satisfactory that a preparation, which embraces in its remedial ranges so many of the complaints common to both sexes, should prove so eminently benficial to the weaker one.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, April 7, 1869.

The activity in money continues and keeps down the price of Government bonds, and all stocks that can not be used as prime collaterals. In old 1862's and 1865's more is doing, and some demand for European investment has advanced quotations slightly. The later issues are dull, but quotations have shown a slight improvement. It is generally conceded by bankers that bonds will rule much higher as soon as it is known what the Bank of England will do in regard to a further advance of interest. Should they decide on five per cent., speculation in bonds by foreign bankers would be checked and the market would then depend on the ordinary investment demand.

Gold is formerly held at 131¾ to 131⅞; but transactions are on a limited scale; the chances for any advance above 133 are very slim, whilst on the other hand no decline is anticipated. The supply of cash gold on the market being limited, it is difficult to borrow gold, and what may come in the market about next May is a mere fraction. The bulk of it will go to Europe.

Stocks are strong for all the leading railroad shares. Express shares dull but firm.

Money 12 per cent., for all out of bank discounts. Business improving, and a better feeling exists.

Quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz: Gold, 131¾; Silver, 125; Eighty-one's, 116; Five Twenties, 1862, 119; do 1864, 114½; do 1865, 116½; do 1865, Consols, 113⅝; do 1867, 113⅜; do 1868, 113½; Ten Forties, 105½; New York Central, 65½; Erie, ——; Reading, 92; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad, 27; Ohio & Mississippi, 32¾; Michigan Southern, 95¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 90; Chicago & Rock Island, 99¾; Chicago & North-Western, 83¾; Chicago & North Western Preferred, 95; Adams Express Company, 59¾; Merchants Union Express, 15½; Pacific Mail, 90¾; Western Union Telegraph Company, 40⅝; Gregory, 2,70; Quartz Hill, 1,15; Corydon, —; Smith & Parmlee, 2,70; W. [By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 7, 1868.

The Money market was somewhat irregular in the morning and the demand was pressing, borrowers evidently desiring to supply themselves early and not trust to the chances of an easier market. The rates paid for call loans were 7 per cent. currency, and 1-16@¼ per cent. on Governments, with 7 per cent. currency, and ⅛@¼ per cent. on Stocks. As the day advanced the market became easier, and call loans were dull at 7 per cent. gold, which was the current rate just previous to the close of bank hours. Applications for discount from merchants are heavy, but the rates are almost nominal at 110@115 for prime double and single names. Sterling is nominally steady at 107⅞@108¼ for best bills, and round amounts can only be sold at a concession therefrom. Gold was quiet and firm all day, the two extremes being 131⅜@131⅝. The bulk of the transactions were made at 131⅜, which was the closing rate. The rates paid for carrying were 3, 4, 2 and 1 per cent., and for borrowing 3, 2, 1-32@1-16 per cent. to flat. No exports. The clearances of gold from the Exchange Bank were $410,000.

Governments are stronger and prices are higher, but the market was dull, closing firm, however, with a good inquiry for all bonds, and holders are indisposed to sell. Coupons of '81, 115½@115⅝; do. '62, 119¼@119½; do. '64, 114½@114⅜; do. '65, 116½@116¾; new do., 113½@113⅝; do. '67, 113½@113⅝; do. '68, 113¼@113⅜; 10-40s, 105⅛@105¼.

State Bonds quiet but rather firm: Missouris, 87¼@87½; New Tennessees, 64⅜@64½; North Carolinas, 53¼@54; The Stock market in the morning was a trifle off last evening's prices, except New York Central, which was strong and rose to 160 on the report of a bill in the Legislature to legalize the 80 per cent. certificates. Northwestern was comparatively firm. Old Southern, Pittsburgh, Pacific Mail and West Union were otherwise in great demand. Later in the day the market became heavy for Northwestern, it being reported that 3,000 shares of preferred stock was shipped to-day, per account of a local operator, to London, on his own account, while another statement was that none of the stock had been sold in Europe, but carried there on borrowed money. Subsequently the market was firmer, with a general upward movement, the strongest being Central, Northwestern preferred, Fort Wayne, St. Paul, Pacific Mail and Cincinnati, and prices closing steady.

5-30 Prices—Cumberland, 35@37; Wells Express, 31@31½; American, 40¾@42; Adams, 59@59½; Merchants Union, 52½@53¼; United States, 57@58½; Quicksilver 22@22¾; Canton, 58; Pacific Mail, 90½@90¾; Western Union, 41¼@41⅝; Mariposa, 18¾@19; pref., 35¾@35½; N. LIVE STOCK MARKETS

PENN'A CENTRAL STOCK YARDS, WEDNESDAY, April 7, 1869.

CATTLE—The market was considerably firmer during yesterday and up until noon to day, and nearly all of the cattle on sale during that time were taken at full prices. About eleven o'clock A. M. to-day, a dispatch was received from New York, reporting that market full and prices from a half to three-quarters of a cent lower; and several other telegrams were afterwards received confirming the one alluded to. As soon as this became known the market assumed a different character, and it is probable that it will be dull and heavy during the balance of the week, as there are no other buyers excepting those from New York, and they will want to buy at a corresponding decline.

Prices up until noon to-day ranged a shade lower than last week, prime to extra shipping steers selling at 7½@8, and one bunch averaging about 1,500, brought 8¼. Medium steers may be quoted at 7@7¼, and fair at 6½@6¾. There was but a small number in the pens unsold to-day, but there are a good many on the way and it was thought that the arrivals during yesterday afternoon and last night would be liberal.

All the commission firms at these yards appear to be doing a good business. Holmes, Lafferty & Co. have an immense trade, and we are glad to record it, as they are live men, fully up to the business; prompt, reliable and correct in all its various details. This firm, we understand, sold about a million and a half dollars worth of stock during the year 1868.

THURSDAY, April 1.—Hedges & Taylor for Studinger to Kelly 19 weighing 19,400, at $6,40; Holmes, Lafferty & Co. for Gault to Donald 40 weighing 47,125, at 6¾; same for Dowlin to Kelly 31 weighing 34,000, at 7; 50 in different lots at from 5¾@9, the latter having been paid for 3 head of extra fat steers; same for Miller to Simon weighing 21,425, at 6¾.

FRIDAY, April 2.—Holmes, Lafferty & Co. for Wilson to Martin 42 weighing 52,250, at 7¼; same for Brown to Kelly 31 weighing 38,650, at 7¼; same for A. J. Glass to Beach & Bray 11 weighing 13,975, at 6@6¾; Smith & Blue for Penell 4, at 6¾; Riley to Carson 16 weighing 18,600, at 6¾; Smith & Blue for Pennell to Kelly 2 oxen, at 5½, and 10 steers weighing 11,075, at 6¾; Snider to Aurenz 20 bblls, at 4.

TUESDAY, April 5.—Orr & Williams to Beach & Bray 16, weighing 16,550, at 6½; Traurman & Lobman to Runyon 12, weighing 13,150; Holmes, Lafferty & Co. for Milligan & Co. 17, weighing 18,175; same for Castleman to Beach & Bray 7, weighing 6,400, at 6¼; Traurman & Lobman to Kelly weighing 4,710.

WEDNESDAY, April 7.—Hazlewood & Blackstock for Kerwin to Beach & Bray, 4 weighing 4,450, at 6¾; Holmes, Lafferty & Co; for Beach & Bray, for E. Webb to same buyers 34, weighing 40,500, at 7,30; same for Doud to same buyers 29, weighing 34,225, at 7¼; Grismer to Beach & Bray 17, weighing 19,825; Holmes, Lafferty & Co. for Brandt to Beach & Bray 15, weighing 18,850, at 7,75; 1 cow, at 7; See to Kelly 31 (Texans) weighing 35,400; Holmes, Lafferty & Co. 15 bulls for Doud to Kelley, at 6; See to Martin 19 head prime steers averaging 1,500, at 8¼.

SHEEP—The Sheep market has been quite active thus far this week, and with a diminished supply and good shipping demand, prices, compared with last week, have advanced fully a half cent. Sheared Sheep may be quoted at 5@6½, as to quality, while wooled Sheep sold at from 6@7½, and an extra bunch, had there have been any such on sale, would doubtless have brought 8 cts. Buyers are making a difference of from a cent to a cent and a half between clipped and wooled Sheep, depending altogether on the weather.

HOGS—The market is devoid of any thing that is really new or important, the only noticable feature being a slight decline compared with last week. We now quote Philadelphia Hogs at 11¼@11½ and Yorkers at 9½@10, with a supply fully up to the demand, is light.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, April 7.—Fair business doing at some concessions in rates for various classes of cotton and linen goods, which we now quote as follows: Tuscarora Bleached Muslins 20c; Arkwright do 19c; Boott do 14c; Boott R 3-4 do 10c; Bedford R Brown 10c; Clarks 4-4 Brown 16c; Santee Asunaburgs 7-8 19c; Wilmington Stripes 14c; Glen Bleached Crash 20c; Twilled Rolled Brown do 19c; N N Brown Crash 17½c; N do 16c; P do 15; A do 14c, and one cent advance on these prices on all numbers of bleached.

PHILADELPHIA, April 7.—Flour dull and drooping; northwestern extra family $7,50@7,25; Ohio $9. Wheat quiet: red $1,60@1,65; amber $1,70@1,75; white $1.80@2. Rye $1,45. Corn firm; yellow 88c; mixed western 85@86c. Oats steady; Penna. 65@70c; western 73@76c. Petroleum steady but dull; crude 22½c; refined 31c. Groceries unchanged. Provisions inactive. Whisky selling slowly at 97c.

CHICAGO, April 7.—Cattle Market.—Hogs steady and moderately active; $9,25@9,50 for fair to medium, and $9,65@10,00 for good. Beef cattle a shade more active; $4,30@5,00 for common cows and Cherokee steers; $5,50@6,00 for fair; $6,26@6,50 for medium to good, and $,50 for extra choice.

A Frightful War Picture—The Horrors of Being "Instantly Killed."

Count Tolsboi's "Sevastapol in May," in course of publication in "Hours at Home," gives a very remarkable description of the death of a man who is instantly killed—as the living say, "instantly killed"—by a piece of a shell which strikes him. But to him, the dying man, his death seems a different affair. This surely is extremely powerful writing:

Michailof looked behind him. The shining point of the bomb seemed to stand at the zenith—in that position where it is impossible to tell its direction. But that lasted only a minute; the bomb came quicker and quicker, nearer and nearer, so that you could see the sparks from the tube and hear the fatal whistling, and directed its course straight at the middle of the battalion.

"Lie down," cried a voice.

Michailof and Praskukin lay down on the ground. Praskukin, tightly closing his eyes, heard only how the bomb fell heavily somewhere very near on the hard ground. A second passed—it seemed an hour—and the bomb did not burst. Praskukin began to be afraid that he had done a cowardly act without any reason, that perhaps the bomb had fallen far away, and he thought he only heard the fuze fizzing. He opened his eyes and saw with satisfaction that Michailof lay immovable on the ground near his legs. But his eyes at that moment met the sparkling fuse of the whirling bomb not a yard from him. A horror—a cold horror excluding all other thoughts and feelings—took possession of him. He covered his face with his hands.

Another second passed—a second in which a whole world of feelinge, hopes, thoughts and recollections passed through his mind.

"Whom will it kill; me or Michailof? or both together? It it hits me, where will it hit? in the head, then it's all over; if it hits my leg, they will cut it off and I shall ask them to do it by all means by chloroform—and I can still get through alive. But perhaps it will only kill Michailof—then I can tell how we were walking together, and he was killed and I was spattered with blood. No, it's nearer to me—it will kill me!"

Then he recollected the twelve rubles that he owed Mchailof; he recollected also another debt at St. Petersburg that he ought to have paid long ago; a gipsy air that he had sung in the evening came into his head. The girl whom he loved appeared to his imagination in a cap with lilac ribbons; he remembered a man whom he had insulted years before and who had never paid it back, although at the same time with these and a thousand other remembrances the feeling of his present circumstances—the expectation of death—never for a moment quitted him. "However, perhaps it will not burst," he thought, and with despairing decision wanted to open his eyes. But at that instant, through the still shut lids, he saw a red fire, and with a horrible noise something hit him in the middle of the breast.

"Thank God! I am only bruised," was his first thought, and he wanted to feel of his breast, but his hands seemed to be bound down, and a weight to keep down his head. The soldiers shone in his eyes, and he unconsciously counted them: "one, two, three soldiers, and that one whose overcoat has slipped down is an officer," he thought. Then he saw flashes, and the thought, "what are they firing from, mortars, or cannon? Probably from cannon. They are firing again, and there are more soldiers, and they all go past." He almost became afraid that they would leave him there. He wanted to cry out that he was wounded, but his mouth was so dry that his tongue stuck to his palate and a horrible thirst tormented him. He felt how wet he was about the breast. "Really I fell in some blood when I lay down," he thought, and yielding more and more to the fear that the soldiers who were going past would leave him there, he collected all his forces and tried to cry out: "Take me along," but instead of that he groaned so horribly that it was awful to hear his own voice. Then some red fires danced in his eyes, and it seemed to him that the soldiers were laying stones on him; the fires danced quicker, the stones which they laid on him oppressed him more and more. He made an effort to throw off the stones, stretched out, and then neither saw nor heard nor thought nor felt. He was killed on the spot by a fragment of shell in the middle of his breast.

Ladies' Societies.

A Philadelphia husband writes as follows to the Press of that city:

My better half has a perfect mania for secret societies. Monday, with the sick, Tuesday, with the Daughters of the Forest; Wednesday, on committees; Thursday, at the sewing circle; Friday, with the Lady Masons; Saturday, attention to all; Sunday, I can't tell where.

I come home and find the house empty, and the children divided around among the neighbors. I get my supper, walk around until half-past nine o'clock, find the fire out and go to bed. Wake up about eleven o'clock; ask what time and where she has been. Of course she says, "to the Lodge."

This may be all right, but I can't see it in that way. Then they have "fairs, festivals," etc., and attend the "tables." After they are over, the talk begins, and hints are thrown out that "Sister Mrs. —— did not turn in all her money. See how she comes out with her fancy dresses! Her husband can't supply her with them. I don't say she has done so—but it looks suspicious!"

I would like some one to tell me what to do. I can't stand it much longer.

Draining the Kankakee River.

A correspondent furnishes us with the following important information in regard to the proposed improvement of the Kankakee section of Indiana—country noted topographically as being flat and marshy, and partially covered with scrubby oaks: "I was informed by R. Luncheon, Esq., that under the ditching laws of Indiana a company comprising many such wealthy men as Judge W. C. Hannah, of Laporte, and G. W. Cass, President of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad, has been organized for the purpose of draining the Kankakee region. It is believed that the straightening of the Kankakee river will afford all the drainage required. Mr. Luncheon assured me that the work of the company will be driven forward to an early completion. Should this be done, over three hundred thousand acres of fertile lands, which can now be purchased at an average cost of five dollars per acre, will immediately advance to twenty-five dollars per acre.—Cin. Chronicle.

"Old Pap"—He Goes Into the Lecture Business.

[Correspondence Cincinnati Commercial, 2d.]

The Scientific Association of Washington—I believe that is the name—pressed upon General Thomas an invitation to give the members his story of the battle of Nashville. General Thomas, with great reluctance, consented. I know that I am doing wrong to give an account of it, but I cannot resist. The day is near when every trait and every anecdote of this remarkable man will be treasured up, and the Boswells be thanked for recording them.

With a map hung upon the wall, and armed with a light rattan, the stalwart form of the soldier stood before the little company as much embarrassed as a girl. The man who had marshaled great armies, and unhesitatingly took the responsibility in huge fights, when the fate of the Republic hung trembling on the issue, blushed like a boy, while perspiration gathered in drops upon his forehead. It was with the greatest effort that he forced himself to proceed.

He did so, however, with clearness and graphic power. He sketched in a few brief words the campaign that culminated in the battle before Nashville. He then gave the position of the troops under both Hood and himself. He told, with the power of words when uncolored by any imagination, the situation of the enemy as the two armies lay facing each other, until the hour came when they were forced to try conclusions, and of the victory that followed.

His voice was never raised above a conversational tone, nor did he for a second betray any feeling. It was the great Captain changed to the historian, and retaining the traits in the one, that had made him famous in the other. In conclusion, he said, calmly, that looking over all the ground, and tracing back the train of events, he could not find but one error with which to charge himself. But that, he said, was a grave error. At the close of the first day's fighting he thought of detaching Steedman with force enough to possess himself of the fords of the Tennessee, so as to intercept the retreating enemy. Over-cautious, and fearing to weaken his own forces, he hesitated and delayed until after the second day's fight, and then it was too late. That was the one error, but, he said, it was a grave one.

It was a great treat to me to see crowds of intellectual hearers. Think of Wellington, or the great Napoleon, telling to a select few, in this way, his knowledge of Waterloo; and the subdued, modest way of telling, here gave a wonderful charm to the narration. It was knowing of the battle Nashville and seeing the hero, as if the audience were a part of the great event.

A New Theory of Steam.

Mr. Thomas Eubank, who is known as a gentleman of considerable attainments, has broached a new theory of steam. His essay is long, and he goes into the obtrusive features further than we have time to follow him. He says: "The proposed theory is based on the use of common or natural steam, rejecting the superheating hypothesis as unnatural, fraught with danger, uncalled for and unprofitable. The following propositions are deemed incontrovertible: 1. The force or power in steam is a natural property, existing as fully in that which arises from open caldrons as when generated in high pressure boilers. They are considered as charged with accumulated common steam, as condensed air is accumulated common air. 2. The natural and legitimate mode of increasing the power of steam is, like that of air, water and everything else, by increasing its quantity. Quantity and pressure are equivalents of each other. When the pressure is doubled, so is the quantity; and the converse, doubling the quantity doubles the pressure. 3 The force which produces expansion in one direction produces a correlative contraction in the other: Thus steam has two forces, expansion and contraction or collapsion, which by the law of action and reaction, are absolutely equal to each other. It the foregoing be not sufficient to awaken inquiry into the merits of collapsion, and two other facts, which to most reflecting minds will be evident: 1. In high pressure engines a cylinderful of common steam is virtually lost at every stroke of the piston. Having no expansive force, it only serves as a base on which the other steam acts, or places it in a condition to act. 2. That the steam discharged from such engines as waste, and nearly all that passes through the cylinders is discharged as such, contains, or can be made to yield, more power than it imparted to the pistons. More than half the fuel is therefore expended without producing any mechanical effect whatever.

THE Clearfield Republican of last week says: "The long pending quarrel between the Pennsylvania Railroad, Allegheny Valley Railroad and the Winslow Colliery, with reference to the building of a road from the mouth of Mahoning creek, on the Allegheny river, to the mouth of Bennett's Branch, on the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad, has at length been settled, and the road will be speedily made. It will pass across the western end of this county, through Brady, Union and Hudson townships, and will have the lowest grade of any railroad running between the Eastern and Western States. The grade will not exceed twenty-six feet, while the lowest grade on any of the roads now made is seventy-three feet.

"The only point not settled with reference to this road, is whether it shall enter our county by the Mahoning Valley route or the Red Bank. We are somewhat familiar with both these valleys, and are decidedly in favor of the Mahoning route, as the most feasible, because it is the most direct and the lowest grade. Besides, the Sandy Lick coal fields can be reached by this as well as by the other route. A glance at any State map will establish this fact."

A NEW YORK dispatch says: It is reported that James Fisk and Jay Gould have bought a three-fourth's interest in the New York Times, for which they pay $800,000. The negotiations have been some time in progress, but the papers are not yet signed.

The Vigilance Committee held a meeting to-night to consider the case of John Real, and resolved to employ counsel, if necessary, to watch the interests of citizens, and secure the enforcement of the laws.

CARL BENSON thinks the "coming man" ought to weigh one hundred and fifty-five pounds. Professor Peaslee, on the other hand, thinks the perfect physiological man will weigh one hundred and forty pounds. And so we don't know whether to fatten up or lean down.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Notice to Our Readers.—Any subscriber who removed on the first of April, should leave the number of his present residence, at our counting room, so that his paper may be left without interruption by the carrier.

Allegheny Councils.—The Allegheny Councils will hold a regular meeting this evening, at seven and a half o'clock.

During the year 1868 there were 424 persons killed and 720 wounded on the railroads of Pennsylvania.

Seriously Injured.—Geo. McKnight, a blacksmith, residing in Lower St. Clair township, was severely injured Monday evening, by being kicked by a horse. He is recovering slowly.

Discharged.—John Nicholson, arrested on Monday on a charge of larceny, was discharged yesterday after a hearing, there being no evidence to warrant the Mayor in holding him for court.

Big Thing.—A two hundred barrel well, yielding at present rates over a thousand dollars per day, has been struck on Church Run. It is now the largest producing well in the oil regions.

Vagrants by the Wholesale.—Mayor Drum had seventeen vagrants before him yesterday morning. Three of them were discharged, after the usual fine, and the remaining fourteen were committed to jail.

Committed.—Johnston Poland made information before Alderman Miller, of Allegheny, yesterday, against John A. Peoples for selling liquor without license. The accused was arrested and committed for a hearing to-day.

We learn that the exhibition of the Hanna Literary Society, to be held in the Sixth avenue U. P. Church this evening, will be a grand entertainment, and would advise all who can find a spare quarter to attend.

Serious Charge.—Mary Stevens made information before Alderman Donaldson yesterday, against Luther Miller for fornication and bastardy. The parties are colored, and employed at the Union Depot Hotel. A warrant was issued.

In Jail.—Geo. Thompson, arrested some months since at the Opera House in this city as a professional thief, and discharged on condition that he would leave the city, was arrested and convicted of pocket-picking in Wheeling a few days since and sent to jail for six months.

The Closing Exercises of the graduating class of the Western Theological Seminary for the school year just closed took place in the Fourth U. P. Church, (Rev. Dickey's,) Allegheny, last evening. The occasion attracted a very large audience, all of whom seemed highly pleased with the entertainment.

Alleged Disorderly House.—Dr. Arthurs made information before Alderman McMasters, yesterday, against Wm. Robinson, Wm. Moore and Jenny Painter, charging them with maintaining a bawdy house on Arthurs street, Eleventh Ward. The accused were arrested and gave bail for a hearing this afternoon, at three o'clock.

Proposed New Church.—A large lot has been purchased on Watson street, Twenty-third ward, by the members of the Hazlewood Presbyterian Church, who design erecting a handsome church thereon. A committee has been appointed to solicit subscriptions in aid of the enterprise, which has thus far been very successful.

Committed.—Justice McCormick of Noblestown, yesterday made information before the Mayor, charging Peter Riley, the man who stabbed Bulger, an account of which we published yesterday, with feloneous assault and battery. Riley was committed to jail to await the result of Bulger's injuries. The injured man was still living at last accounts, but there was no hope entertained for his recovery.

Assaulted.—William Grab made information before Alderman McMasters yesterday against Charles Frazier, for assault and battery. The parties are wood carvers, and are engaged at a shop on Grant street. Yesterday morning they had a difficulty in regard to their work, when, according to Grab's statement, he was severely beaten by the defendant. The accused was arrested and gave bail for a hearing.

The bill creating the office of Gas Inspector for this county, as it passed the Legislature, contained a proviso fixing the grade of gas at 18 instead of 12. This will be an unsatisfactory announcement to the Pittsburgh Gas Company, but a happy one to the consumers, for what the former lose the latter will gain in their quarterly bills. The provision is a very wise one, and to the Dispatch belongs the credit of its introduction.

A Pittsburgh Thief Caged.—A few days since Robert McLaughlin, who, it will be remembered, was connected with the Birmingham robbery last winter, was arrested in the Fenian Convention, Cincinnati, for picking pockets, with four pocketbooks, for which owners were found, in his possession. He was tried and convicted of larceny on four indictments and sent to the State Penitentiary at Columbus, Ohio, for seven years.

The Park bill which passed the Legislature on Tuesday was amended, on the suggestion of the Pittsburgh Dispatch, in such manner as to provide for the sale of the lots surrounding the selected site to the highest and best bidder. This is a very important change from the original bill as it passed Councils, which allowed the Commissioners to take the lots at an appraised value, on fifteen years time for payment.

Sent to the House of Refuge.—John Ford, aged 13 years, was sent to the House of Refuge yesterday by the Mayor. The boy it appears resided with James Henderson, on Deer Creek. Yesterday morning he left home and came to Allegheny City with a pocket book containing ten dollars, the property of Miss. Henderson. He went to Mr. Paul's, in Allegheny, and told him that Mr. Henderson had sent him to the city to get plow points, and had told him to come to him (Paul) and get five dollars to pay for them. Mr. Paul was not inclined to believe the statement, and sent for Mr. Henderson, detaining the boy until Mr. H. arrived. The boy was then brought to the Mayor's office, and disposed of as stated.

Lightning Rods.

The old firm of Lockhart & Co. have removed to 234 Penn St., where they have greater facilities for prosecuting their business, which has grown very largely during the past few years. We are glad to note the prosperity of any of our manufacturers, and especially so of this firm. It is composed of gentlemen in every sense of the term, and their goods have given the utmost satisfaction for many years past, not only among our own people, but also in all parts of the country. They supply orders at wholesale or retail.

WEDNESDAY, April 7.—James Brown was tried on an indictment charging him with assault and battery, on oath of Charles H. Jackson. The parties are colored, and it appears Jackson wanted to go into a ball room where Brown was doorkeeper. He was refused admittance, and becoming disorderly, Brown knocked him down. The jury fouud a verdict of not guilty, and divided the costs between the parties.

GUILTY OF ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

William Hingh, was then placed on trial on a charge of aggravated assault and battery, on complaint of Patrick Aligot. The defendant, it seems, had a bridle belonging to Aligot, which he endeavored to take from him, when Hingh knocked him down. The jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault and battery, and the Court sentenced the defendant to pay a fine of $15 and costs.

PERJURY CASE.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Johnston Poland, indicted for perjury, Henry Neeland prosecutor, it appeared that Neeland had been prosecuted for illegal liquor selling before Alderman Baillie, who imposed the penalty of $50 upon him. Independence Hose Carriage.

The Independence Engine Company of this city have just ordered the construction, by the Amoskeag Company of Manchester, New Hampshire, of a new hose carriage, to take the place of their old vehicle, which is about worn out. The new carriage will be built on the most approved pattern and contain many advantages over those now in general use. One of the most noticeable improvements will be the arrangement of the wheels and hose reel, by which the carriage can be turned in almost the same space it occupies while standing. It will be finished in elegant style, and when completed will weigh about eleven hundred pounds. The second week of May is the time designated for its delivery to the company upon the payment of the contract price, six hundred dollars.

ELEGANT BOOK ESTABLISHMENT.

An Old Favorite Firm in a New Place --Fine Stock of Books and Everything in the Trade.

No department of business has grown so rapidly of late years in our city, as the book trade; and it is now conducted on a more extensive scale, and improved in every part, than formerly. The house of ROBERT S. DAVIS & Co., established over a dozen years ago were among the first to introduce broad and liberal views in the conduct of this business, in a word, to open a first class book establishment in every respect, and similar to those in the Eastern cities. The public soon began to appreciate the fact, and the trade of this house has grown rapidly and is widely extended.

For many years the old corner of Wood street and Diamond alley has been a favorite resort for book buyers, and for those desiring to purchase fancy stationary. With a view to having a location more central, suitable and convenient, and to accommodate their growing business, they have just fitted up one of "Brown's" massive buildings, No. 193 Liberty street, several doors above Sixth (old St. Clair) street, in elegant style. The building, both inside and outside, has been completely modernized. It is four stories, one hundred feet deep. First and second floors are richly arranged with beautiful oaked cases and counters, for the wholesale and retail trade. Part of the second floor is thrown open, which gives the first floor at the entrance a bright cheerful look. Every part is admirably arranged for conducting a vast trade, and for the comfort of buyers and visitors. Quite a bevy of elegant stores have recently been opened in this locality, which is destined to be, ere long, one of the most attractive business places in the city. W. P. Marshall, Wall Paper Merchant, joins R. S. Davis & Co., and Henry Higby, is fitting up elegant quarters in the same row, for his extensive queensware trade.

The senior member of the firm, Mr. Robert S. Davis, has been in the Book and Printing business since his boyhood. His thorough knowledge of the trade, and admirable taste and judgment, are worthy of note in a business of this character. We have known him long and well and therefore speak confidently of his high toned character and excellent business qualifications. Mr. W. W. Waters has been connected with the house from the time it was first established in the "old corner" on Wood street, and is a member of the firm. This gentleman has long been a favorite for his equable temperament and his snavity of manners. Thoroughly posted in every department of the trade, and a capital salesman. The junior partner, Mr. Frank H. Dening, is an acquisition to the house, and worthy of the confidence imposed in giving him a place in the firm. A young gentleman of snap and energy, whose services will be sensibly felt, as he is well versed in the trade and a good salesman. Business men like this trio, possessing an extensive knowledge of the wants of book buyers, and with first-class facilities to make purchases themselves, and what is needed by the trade, cannot fail to please, and to be able to sell at the lowest prices.

If the readers please, we will give the result of our stroll around the spacious rooms of this book establishment. Here are to be found works of the higher class of literature, standard as well as current issues of History, Biography, Poetry, Belles-Lettres, Travel and Fiction. Books on Architecture, Fine Arts, Mechanics, Mathematics, Medical, Law, Chemistry, Philosophy, Astronomy, Botany, Geology, Mineraogy and kindred publications. The Theological department is full, varied, and comprises rare and valuable books, commentaries of all kinds, Church and Sacred History, Religious Biography, controversial of different denominations and devotional works. Church requisites, a full supply. Special attention given to supplying Sabbath School and library books, maps, black-boards, question and lesson works. Subscriptions received for the "Child's Paper," "Child at Home," "Child's World," "American Messenger," and similar serials, at publisher's rates, and delivered here free of expense. This house was early in the field to compete with Eastern houses in the sale of School books, and it possesses facilities to make it an object for dealers to buy from them. All the text books for public and private institutions and schools can be supplied at lowest rates. School stationery and furniture of every kind kept on hand or procured at short notice.

Much attention is given to supplying bibles and testaments, among which are editions of Oxford, Bagster, and Cambridge, worth from thirty-four cents up to fifty dollars. Many of their bibles are directly imported by this house, and can be sold by them at New York importers' rates. They can supply Appleton's Cyclopedia, Encyclopedia Brittanica, New English Cyclopedia, and Chamber's Cyclopedia, at publishers' prices. Blank books of all grades for business purposes, and articles necessary for the office and counting room. Envelopes of all styles, plain and fancy, cap, letter and note paper, and paper for the use of ladies, and also wedding stationery prepared to order with monogram. Photograph albums in rich variety, stereoscopes and views, gold pens, pencils, ivory holders. These are but a tithe of what they have, which they can supply by wholesale and retail. Persons in need will do well to call.

Furnace Explosion.

Tuesday noon, Mr. James Stewart, while working around the boiling furnace in Painters' Mill, South Pittsburgh, threw into it a small ladleful of water as was customary, for the purpose of "cooling off," as it is termed. Unfortunately, the water contained some dirt or foreign substances which caused an immediate explosion, by which the roof of the furnace was blown off, and the whole apparatus damaged to such an extent as will necessitate rebuilding. Fortunately there was no person in the immediate vicinity at the time, except Mr. Stewart, who miraculously escaped serious injury, being but slightly burned in the face by the flash of the fire from the furnace door. The loss will be inconsiderable.

More of It.

Yesterday we gave the particulars of a disturbance which took place at Shoenberger's nail mill, in the Ninth ward. Subsequently C. L. Kline, an employee of the mill, made information before Alderman Taylor against James Musgrave and Thomas McCarthy for surety of the peace. The prosecutor alleges the defendants were numbered in the party which menaced the employees of the mill, and threatened him with bodily harm. William Tatnall also made a similar information against the same parties, together with Frederick Stewart. Warrants were issued for the arrest of Stewart and Musgrave. McCarthy was arrested and gave bail for a hearing.

AFRICAN M. E. CONFERENCE.

Pittsburgh Conference African M. E. Church—First Annual Session—Organizations, Proceedings, &c., &c.

The Pittsburgh Conference of the African M. E. Church commenced its first annual session, in the African church on Wylie street, Saturday morning. This Conference consists of fourteen travelling preachers, having in charge all of Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia, and is composed of what was formerly a part of the Ohio Conference.

Bishop D. A. Payne called the Conference to order at ten and a half o'clock, when Rev. D E. Asbury was elected Secretary. Saturday's session was occupied with the appointment of the various standing committees. The Conference re-assembled Monday morning, and after being opened with prayer, Rev. W. H. Hunter, J. W. Devine and S. T. Jones were appointed a Committee on Circuits and Stations, and Revs. Elder Wm. G. Ralph and John W. Asbury, a Special Committee of Investigation in the case of Rev. D. Cooper, against whom charges had been preferred.

The report of the Committee on Finance was presented, exhibiting a collection of several thousand dollars during the year for missionary and other benevolent purposes. The report was adopted and filed.

Monday afternoon's session was occupied in the discussion of disciplinary questions. Conference met again Tuesday morning at ten o'clock, when W. H. Asbury and W. H. Brown were elected to elder's orders.

On motion, the various Mission Sunday Schools in this vicinity were invited to attend a Sabbath School jubilee on Friday afternoon in the church.

At the afternoon session, after the disposal of a number of disciplinary questions, the following resolution was passed:

Resolved, That we will not admit any one into the itenerant work of the Pittsburgh Conference who will not desist from the use of tobacco.

WEDNESDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Yesterday morning the Conference convened at the usual hour. The greater part of the session was taken up with an able address by Prof. J. Mercer Langston on the duties of ministers' relative to the use of tobacco.

Bishop Payne called the Conference to order for the afternoon session at two o'clock. After some discussion, three o'clock to-day was fixed as the time for the ordination of the newly elected elders.

Rev. B. T. Tanner, from the Committee on Education, Book Concern, and Missions, presented the following report:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION, BOOK CONCERN AND MISSIONS.

To the Bishop and Conference:

Your committee, to whom was given the work of reporting upon the above interests of our church and people, beg leave to say: In regard to education, we can state with pleasure that it is becoming general among the people. We doubt whether the same rapid advancement was ever made by any people. Among the laity of our church, the time promises not to be very distant when the number of those who will be unable to read God's word will be small indeed. Among the ministry, while some progress has been made, we fear that as a whole we are not awakened up to the great necessity of ministerial culture. We must have an educated ministry. Wilberforce must be sustained more zealously in the future than in the past. The reproach of its ashes must be wiped away. Too long have they remained, a mournful indication of our poverty,—we lose appreciation for the cause of education. Let its walls go up. Let its Faculty be increased and supported; and let the number of pupils be quadrupled. Each of our large stations ought to support a young licentiate at this college of the church.

The Book Concern still languishes beneath the burden of a great debt; while yet the receipts are not equal to the expenditures. To carry on the Concern, full $8,000 a year are required. To raise this large amount, the Concern has only he surplus on the cost of Hymn Books and Disciplines, and the subscriptions of the Recorder. From these resources possibly one-half the amount may be raised. Upon the church is devolved the responsibility of raising the other half. Ought not the Church to do this? Expediency, honor and necessity alike demand that this branch of the Church shall be upheld. The cause of missions was never so demanding as now. Voices call at home. Voices call from abroad. Over the mountains and over the sea comes the Macedonian cry, "Come over and help us." From communications received from the Corresponding Secretary of the Society we learn that the Treasury of the Society is well nigh depleted. Shall it not be filled? filled from our own pockets, and not from the pockets of charitable strangers. Long, long have we trusted to the strength of others—too long have profited by the Christianity of others. Let our Church arise. Let it make manifest its own love for Christ.

To meet all these wants our late General Conference made ample provision, and your Committee would only recommend the faithful execution of the law.

B. T. TANNER, Chairman.

The report was unanimously adopted.

After some remarks by Bishop Payne, urging the claims of Wilberforce College, mentioned in the report, the Committee on Sabbath Schools tendered a report which was adopted.

The Committee appointed to draft a Constitution for the organization of a Missionary Society, presented that document, which was adopted.

The Missionary Society was then organized by the election of Rev. J. W. Devine, President; Rev. WM. G. Ralph, Vice President; Rev, W. H. Brown, Secretary, and Rev. S. T. Jones, Treasurer.

A resolution was adopted commending the "Sunday School Attendant" to the Sunday Schools connected with the Conference.

The Conference then adjourned till this morning at ten o'clock.

The Rush House.

The proprietorship of the Rush House, corner of Canal and Liberty streets, has we are informed, passed into the hands of Mr. Levi Rush, who for over a year past has been a partner, and for several years previous to that time, was head clerk of the establishment. Having known Mr. Rush personally, for a number of years, we know whereof we speak when we say that a more accommodating, generous and enterprising hotel keeper is not to be found in this or any other city. The high reputation which the Rush House has sustained hetofore, will not, we feel confident, suffer in his hands. The establishment, as heretofore, will be conducted on the European plan, and former patrons, as well as strangers, may rely upon receiving the best accommodations, and all the attention requisite to their comfort.

Levi's many friends will be gratified to hear of this change, and we have no doubt that under his management the Rush House will not only flourish as it has always done, but the business will be largely increased.

Popular Prices.

Popular prices is a phrase in very general use with retail dealers at present, but it does not in every instance, in which it is used, mean, what is understood by the phrase in its literal sense. Prices may be popular with a certain class of persons, yet decidedly unpopular with the masses. For instance: There are persons with whom high prices are popular, because they think it unfashionable to buy anything unless they pay an exhorbitant price for it. The prices that are popular with the masses, however, are those asked by Mr. William Semple, Nos. 180 and 182 Federal street, Allegheny, for any and every article in his immense establishment. The best quality of calicoes he is selling at twelve and a half cents per yard, as cheap as they were ever sold before the war. His stock of carpets is one of the largest in the city and the prices are as reasonable as those on calico. In fact, his stock comprises everything usually found in a first class dry goods and trimming store, and as an evidence that he is selling at popular prices, his large establishment is continually crowded with purchasers, many of whom we have heard remark that "it was like old times to go to Semple's, as he was selling goods as cheap as they were sold six or seven years ago." The ladies will find a full assortment of ladies' and children's wear at very reasonable prices, at 180 and 182 Federal street, Allegheny.

Green's Patent Gas and Smoke Consuming Furnaces.

Theodore Adams, Esq., of Philadelphia, agent for the above furnaces, is at present in the city, at the Monongahela House. He came at the request of a number of our leading steel and iron manufacturers, who have witnessed the furnaces at work at Norristown, Pennsylvania, where they have been in successful operation for the last eighteen months, and who are desirous of introducing the great invention into their own works in this neighborhood.

These furnaces consume or burn all the smoke and gas arising from any fuel, and require no stacks or chimneys. We conceive them to be of vast importance, especially to Pittsburgh manufacturers, whore so much fuel is wasted in smoke and gas, which roll off in volumes into the air and serve only to blacken and disfigure everything with which they come in contact. The furnaces cost but little, and during the stay of Mr. Adams, a genial gentleman, who is thoroughly acquainted with all the chemical and philosophical principles of the furnace he represents, we hope that our manufacturers and scientific gentlemen will call on him and make inquiry into its merits and ability to accomplish the great objects claimed, and on which many of our own manufacturers bear willing and hearty testimony.

Explosion.

An alarm of fire was communicated to the central office, about ten o'clock yesterday morning, from box 75, Forty-ninth and Butler streets, Seventeenth ward, which was occasioned by the explosion of an oil still in Williams' Oil Refinery on Forty-eighth street. A loud report followed the explosion, but no considerable damage was done, other than the destruction of the still and the wasting of the oil it contained. The The steamers from the third district responded promptly and extinguished the burning oil before the fire communicated with the building.

The Mammoth Cave.

Extract from a Private Letter.

* * * * * We groped about for hours in this wonderful place. I never saw anything like it. The freaks of nature displayed here are very strange, and strike the beholder with awe. But the air in some parts of the cave is close and stifling, and when we came out I found myself saddled with a terrible fever, which entirely postrated me. The physician had never seen a case like it before, and no remedy he prescribed seemed to do the least good. My life was despaired of. Mrs. Wilson, with whom I was residing, had in the house a bottle of PLANTATION BITTERS, and she insisted that I should try it, for she said she knew it to be a certain cure in all cases of fever, debility, ague, dyspepsia, &c. I had but little faith, but finally consented to try it as a last resort. In less than three hours after the first dose my fever left me; in two days I was sitting up, and before Saturday night I was as well as ever. I tell you all this that you may know how to act in any case of fever, or any similar disease. I firmly believe the PLANTATION BITTERS saved my life. * * * * * In my next I will tell you about the cave in detail. A. J. P.
